

WHAT DOES THE BIBLE SAY ABOUT ...

1 · Hair Length

Comments	Scripture
Hair Length	Men Should Not Have Very Long Hair
	THEOS does not want men to have very long hair.	And does not nature itself teach you that a man, if he wears long hair [shoulder length is a reasonable limit], it is a dishonor to him? 1Cor 11:14
	The healthy male believer revolts against himself when dressed in symbols of femininity.	Absalom was found in the presence of the servants of David as he was riding on the mule. The mule went under the thicket of the great oak tree, and his head was caught in the tree. He was left hanging between heaven and earth, and the mule which was under him went on. 2Sam 18:9
	Exceptions:	‘When a man or a woman takes a special vow, a vow of a Nazirite, to keep separate for KYRIOS [...] All the days of the vow of his separation a razor will not pass over his head. Until fulfilling the days that he separated himself to KYRIOS he will be holy and grow long the locks of the hair of his head. Num 6:1-5
	Samson and most probably also Absalom took the Nazirite vow (long hair only for a limited time; Old Covenant application according to Numbers 6).	... you will conceive and bear a son [Samson]. No razor will touch his head, because the boy will be a Nazirite of THEOS from birth. And it is he who will begin to deliver Israel from the hand of the Philistines.” Idg 13:5
	If THEOS commands an exception for a specific purpose (e.g. Isaiah going naked for 3 years), it does not nullify the normal natural order (to cover nakedness).	So he [Samson] confided everything to her ... If I am shaved my strength will leave me, and I will become weak, like everyone else. [...] she called the men and shaved off seven locks of his head. Then she began to subdue him, and his strength went away from him. Idg 16:17-19
		As far as Absalom, there was not a more handsome man in all of Israel to admire so much; from the sole of his foot up to his crown, there was no physical defect on him. When he shaved his head, it would happen every year, which he did because it was heavy on him [= very long], he would shave it off and weigh the hair of his head: two hundred shekels by the king’s weight. 2Sam 14:25-26
	Women Have Ideally Very Long Hair
	Women show more glory to THEOS with long hair, but it is not an obligation to have very long hair.	... you grew up, and you became tall and reached full womanhood. Your breasts were formed, and your hair had grown ... Eze 16:7
	It is also plainly seen in the nature of women that their hair generally grows slower and longer than the hair of man, and that the pattern of female baldness is much less prevalent than male baldness.	Oh my! You are beautiful, my beloved! Oh my! You are beautiful! Your eyes are doves from behind your veil. Your hair is like a flock of goats that move down from the mountains of Gilead. Son 4:1
		But if a woman should wear tresses of hair [literal translation; G2863, KOMA, koma, to wear tresses of hair], is it a glory to her? For the hair has been given to her for a covering. 1Cor 11:15

Head Coverings

Comments	Scripture
A controversial topic. An unbiased study reveals that 1Cor 11 applies today, not because some scholars assume that this might have had cultural implications, but because Paul proactively overwrote those assumptions, by giving specific reasons (verse 10) and applying it specifically to the churches of THEOS (verse 16). What is often wrongly assumed to have been a custom related to prostitutes , is clearly a principle rooted even in creation . Paul does not appeal to culture, but to nature.
In the end it boils down to a few minutes of prayer, when the man should have nothing on his head , but the woman should have something on her head (handkerchief, hat, scarf ...) . To call it legalistic or a burden to honor THEOS in those few minutes of prayer by quickly covering the head, is simply showing that we do not honor Him sufficiently.
Biblical History
During the time of Moses, it was normative for women to wear a head covering (at least when visiting a priest), which means on the other hand that the New Covenant rather brought liberty by its norm restricted to times of prayer.	... and the priest hath caused the woman to stand before KYRIOS, and hath uncovered the woman's head , and hath given into her hands the present of the memorial, it [is] a present of jealousy, and in the hand of the priest are the bitter waters which cause the curse.	Num 5:18
When Rebekah went to meet Isaac, she carried a veil with her which she then used right before meeting him.	And Rebekah lifteth up her eyes, and seeth Isaac, and alighteth from off the camel; and she saith unto the servant, ‘Who [is] this man who is walking in the field to meet us?’ and the servant saith, ‘It [is] my lord;’ and she taketh the veil, and covereth herself .	Gen 24:64–65
The removal of a woman’s veil was rather considered as humiliation.	Come down, and sit on the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon, Sit on the earth, there is no throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans, For no more do they cry to thee; O tender and delicate one.’ Take millstones, and grind flour, Remove thy veil , draw up the skirt, Uncover the leg, pass over the floods. Revealed is thy nakedness, yea, seen is thy reproach, Vengeance I take, and I meet not a man.	Isa 47:1-3
Men Should Not Pray With Head Covering
Men should not wear any head covering for prayer (only in times of mourning). The mention of men also contradicts it to be a custom related to prostitutes.	... I handed over to you the precepts [Greek 3862, ΠΑΡΑΔΟΧΕΙC, paradosis, From G3860; transmission, that is, (concretely) a precept ; specifically the Jewish traditionary law : – ordinance, tradition], you hold fast to them. [...] Every man who prays or prophesies while having something on his head dishonors his head [...] For indeed a man ought not to cover his head ...	1Cor 11:2-16
Women Should Pray With Head Covering
Women should wear a head covering for the time of prayer – as a symbol of authority (1Cor 11:10).	... but every woman who prays or prophesies with uncovered head dishonors her head, for she is one and the same with the one whose head is shaved. For if a woman does not cover herself, let her hair be shorn off. But if it is shameful for a woman to have her head shorn or shaved, let her cover her head [...] You judge for yourselves: is it fitting for a woman to pray to THEOS with her head uncovered? ...	1Cor 11:4-13
1. Reason: Creation order. To elevate women during the times of prayer to the level of headship men naturally have (in churches, families ...). The order of authority is THEOS the FATHER – CHRISTOS – (Angels–) Man – Woman. The head covering now gives women in the time of prayer a very similar authority before the angels than men. There is the glory of THEOS, which is man. There is the glory of man, which is the woman. There is the glory of woman, which is her long hair, which is covered by a veil during prayer, in order to be modest and to give the full glory to THEOS only. Only the man remains uncovered, because he is the glory of THEOS.	... For indeed a man ought not to cover his head, because he is the image and glory of THEOS, but the woman is the glory of the man . For man is not from woman, but woman from man. For indeed man was not created for the sake of the woman, but woman for the sake of the man.	1Cor 11:7-9
	To the woman he said, “... to your husband shall be your desire. And he shall rule over you. ”	Gen 3:16
	... what is a human being that you think of him? and a child of humankind that you care for him? And you made him a little lower than heavenly beings [angels] , and with glory and with majesty you crowned him.	Psa 8:5
	But I want you to know that CHRISTOS is the head of every man, and the man is the head of the woman , and the head of CHRISTOS is THEOS .	1Cor 11:3
	ΓΥΝΗ ΔΕ ΕΑΝ KOMA ΔΟΞΑ ΑΥΤΗ ΕCΤΙΝ? ΟΤΙ Η KOMH ΑΝΤΙ ΠΕΡΙΒΟΛΑΙΟΥ ΔΕΔΟΤΑΙ [ΑΥΤΗ].	1Cor 11:15
	But if a woman should wear tresses of hair [literal translation; G2863, KOMA, koma, to wear tresses of hair], is it a glory to her? [Many translations erroneously remove the question mark although included in the original manuscripts (back then a '¿' meant a modern '?')] For the hair has been given to her for a covering. [this seems to imply that long hair functions already as head covering (especially when translators chose the term ‘instead’ instead of ‘for’), but this would contradict the previous verses, where Paul says that the uncovered hair is to be shorn off].
2. Reason: Authority. Not to oppress women as many claim, but to give women more authority!	... Because of this, the woman ought to have authority over her head , on account of the angels. ... [the words ‘a symbol / sign of’ are entirely foreign to the Bible, but are added by many translators]	1Cor 11:10
3. Reason: Angels. Paul does not explain what ‘because of the angels’ means. A reference to fallen angels can be excluded because we are not anymore in times where women are being abused through those. But Scripture gives us the hints that angels are watching us and tell THEOS whether or not we’re obeying. Prayers to THEOS are being received by angels and then brought before Him, essentially providing a woman the same access to the Heavenly than a man has without head covering, by elevating the authority of a woman towards angels.	... Because of this, the woman ought to have authority over her head, on account of the angels . [Strong’s G1223 ΔΙΑ, dia, A primary preposition denoting the channel of an act; through, – after, always, among, at, to avoid, because of (that), briefly, by, for (cause) . . . fore, from, in, by occasion of, of, by reason of, for sake, that, thereby, therefore.]	1Cor 11:10
	And calling a child, He placed it in their midst and said [...] Take heed! You should not despise one of these small ones. For I say to you that their angels in the Heavens continually behold the face of my FATHER , the One in the Heavens.	Mat 18:2-10
	But the angel said to him, “Do not be afraid, Zechariah, because your prayer has been heard ...	Luk 1:13
	And another angel who had a golden censer came and stood at the altar, and a large amount of incense was given to him, in order that he could offer the prayers of all the saints on the golden altar that is before the throne. And the smoke of the incense went up before THEOS with the prayers of the saints from the hand of the angel .	Rev 8:3-4
When Paul ordered Timothy to do something, it was done so in the presence of ‘elect angels’.	I testify solemnly before THEOS and CHRIST IESOUS and the elect angels that you observe these things without prejudice, doing nothing according to partiality.	1Tim 5:21
3a. Passover : A vague, but good comparison can also be made to the original night of Passover, when not a head covering, but blood covering the ‘head’ of the door was used as authoritative sign towards the angels (to have them pass over in this case).	... And KYRIOS will go through to strike Egypt, and he will see the blood on the lintel [overhang over the door] and on the two doorposts, and KYRIOS will pass over the doorway and will not allow the destroyer [THEOS’ Angel(s)] to come to your houses to strike you .	Exo 12:13–23
4. Reason: Biblical function of coverings. The indirect, but irresistibly obtruding connection between coverings and the communication with THEOS. The word used for ‘cover’ in Exo 26:34 and Num 4:5 is exactly the same word as used in 1Cor 11:6-7.	And Moses went up to the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain. And the glory of KYRIOS settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days, and He called to Moses on the seventh day from the midst of the cloud .	Exo 24:15
	And thou shalt screen [Strong’s G2619 ΚΑΤΑΚΑΑΥΠΤΕΤΑΙ, katakaluptetai: to cover wholly, that is, veil: – cover, hide] with the veil the ark of the testimony in the holy of holies.	Exo 26:34
	And Aaron and his sons shall go in, when the camp is about to move, and shall take down the shadowing veil [Strong’s G2619], and shall cover with it the ark of the testimony.	Num 4:5
	For if a woman is not covered [Strong’s G2619] then let her be shorn, and if [it is] a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven – let her be covered [Strong’s G2619] ...	1Cor 11:6
5. Reason: Biblical ‘tradition’ which rather means ‘precept’ or ‘ordinance’. The paragraph of the head coverings begins with Paul’s reference to tradition which is different from our understanding of tradition. Paul does not water down his own instructions as often interpreted, but simply states that his church has no custom to be disposed to be contentious (meaning that his church follows it without murmuring) , nor do the other churches of THEOS do so.	Now I commend you because you remember me in everything and maintain the precepts [Greek 3862, ΠΑΡΑΔΟΧΕΙC, paradosis, From G3860; transmission, that is, (concretely) a precept ; specifically the Jewish traditionary law : – ordinance, tradition], even as I delivered them to you.	1Cor 11:2
	But if anyone is disposed to be contentious, we have no such custom [to be contentious] , nor do the churches of THEOS [clear application to churches (plural); a wording often overlooked by those who try to apply a cultural context].	1Cor 11:16
6. Reason: Slightly higher importance than communion. The chapter 11 of 1Corinthians gives priority to ‘head coverings’, because it is mentioned before the paragraph describing ‘communion’. We know very well the importance of order, by just looking at the first of the 10 commandments.	🔍 https://Marvel.Bible 1Cor 11:1 🔍 📄 📖 BSB 1 Corinthians 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 Search Q Roles in Worship ¹ You are to imitate me, just as I imitate Christ. ² Now I commend you for remembering me in everything and for maintaining the traditions, just as I passed them on to you. ³ But I want you to understand that the head of every man is Christ, and the head of the woman is man, and the head of Christ is God. ⁴ Every man who prays or prophesies with his head covered dishonors his head. ⁵ And every woman who prays or prophesies with her head uncovered dishonors her head, for it is just as if her head were shaved. ⁶ If a woman does not cover her head, let her hair be cut off. And if it is shameful for a woman to have her hair cut or shaved off, she should cover her head. ⁷ A man ought not to cover his head, since he is the image and glory of God; but the woman is the glory of man. ⁸ For man did not come from woman, but woman from man. ⁹ Neither was man created for woman, but woman for man. ¹⁰ For this reason a woman ought to have a sign of authority on her head, because of the angels. ¹¹ In the Lord, however, woman is not independent of man, nor is man independent of woman. ¹² For just as woman came from man, so also man is born of woman. But everything comes from God. ¹³ Judge for yourselves: Is it proper for a woman to pray to God with her head uncovered? ¹⁴ Doesn't nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a disgrace to him, ¹⁵ but that if a woman has long hair, it is her glory? While one remains hungry, another gets drunk. ²² Don't you have your own homes in which to eat and drink? Or do you despise the church of God and humiliate those who have nothing? What can I say to you? Shall I praise you for this? Of course not! ²³ For I received from the Lord what I also passed on to you: that the Lord Jesus, on the night He was betrayed, took bread, ²⁴ and when He had given thanks, He broke it and said, "This is My body, which is for you;" do this in remembrance of Me." ²⁵ In the same way, after supper He took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood; do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me." ²⁶ For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until He comes. ²⁷ Therefore, whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of sinning against the body and blood of the Lord. ²⁸ Each one must examine himself before he eats of the bread and drinks of the cup. ²⁹ For anyone who eats and drinks without recognizing the body eats and drinks judgment on himself. ³⁰ That is why many among you are weak and sick, and a number of you have fallen asleep. ³¹ Now if we judged ourselves properly, we would not come under judgment. ³² But when we are judged by the Lord, we are being disciplined so that we will not be condemned with the world. ³³ So, my brothers, when you come together to eat, wait for one another. ³⁴ If anyone is hungry, he should eat at home, so that when you come together it will not result in judgment. And when I come, I will give instructions about the remaining matters. BSB 1 Corinthians 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 Search Q	1Cor 11 (Marvel Bible)

This historically unprecedented event is today both suppressed and explained away by millions of Christians, who often wonder why THEOS does not answer their prayers (while we should rather be surprised that He gracefully does answer any prayer from an unveiled woman). We have to wonder how much of our (church) lives could be different if we would follow this simple act of obedience which had been observed for thousands of years until a few years ago.
