

Introduction

Prologue

The development history of this Bible study still leaves me in awe and wonder. Out of a secondary intention to consolidate the Weekly Sabbath with IESOUS' death, THEOS surely motivated me to create this study that is interlaced with many topics, types, numbers, symbolism and deep Bible knowledge.

The back, forth and cross reading of the 4 accounts of the 'Evangelium' was just the basic homework. Without having coincidentally invested in the preceding weeks more than 100 hours in the 'Sabbath' study, this study would not be possible in its theological extent. Without having done a study on biblical numbers some months after the initial study, this study would not have its full significance.

The perfect harmonization of the Good Message in respect to the timeline of the Passover week, and many other conclusions such as the corrected count toward Pentecost, the chronology of the fig tree story and the finally solved timing of the women purchasing the burial spices, I usually do not perceive in such a cumulation in other studies.

Long story short, seeing how the HOLY SPIRIT moved, and how He over the course of 12 months gave me constant hints (illumination - not special revelation!) to readily available biblical knowledge in order to complete the puzzle behind this study, simply leaves me speechless. I had the privilege of being used by Him in a mighty way I never experienced before. May THEOS use the wonderful result for His purposes and may you be encouraged in your faith.

Is a Fast-Track Crucifixion Biblical?

Traditional timelines of IESOUS' death and resurrection contradict the Bible and the timeline of the Passover festival usually in one or multiple points. Allow me now to present you a -very unconventional- chronology that perfectly goes hand in hand with what the Word of THEOS teaches us.

We all commonly assume a fast-track trial of IESOUS - happened on the very same day between midnight and 9am, going through 6 authorities, including all practical preparation and an unscheduled execution of 3 people at the very same time. But the biblical case for this -by all appearances overstretched- claim is non-existent. Ask yourself the question if your governor and the leader of the opposition would be available for a church-related 'issue' between ~5am and 7am - the chances that both are available at this same time are dwindling small.

The Bible does not state anywhere that IESOUS died within the same 24 hours He was arrested. It is a pure assumption and accomodation of the facts, by always ignoring some biblical facts here and there. The vast majority of scholars had always difficulties in accommodating a proper schedule of events and all too often the Passover meal of IESOUS is brought forward by 1 or 2 days, or even claimed that it was not a Passover but a normal meal / solely breaking bread, to not have CHRISTOS theoretically eaten the lamb after His death. We should never try to accomodate the Bible towards our interpretations, but let the Bible speak in all detail and context, and -then- transcribe the truth.

Justin Martyr

(Extrabiblical Witness)

· Justin Martyr was one of the earliest witnesses after the Apostles, who lived from ~100 AD until ~165 AD.

Upon a careful reading of his text 'Dialogue with Trypho' (a second-century Christian apologetic text, ~155-160 AD), we notice that he stated that CHRISTOS was crucified after / later than the Passover, which does most probably not only refer to a later hour, but to a day different than the Passover Day. This becomes very clear in the next line, where he specifically uses the term 'Passover Day' and then relates the crucifixion to the Passover as a whole, meaning the Passover Week (see detailed differentiation on page 3). This statement, which I found coincidentally 3 years after the initial study, fully affirms this study and cancels already the traditional assumption of a Fast-Track-Trial.

What is the Passover Week?

Passover Week & Unleavened Bread

Passover was not only a 1-day festival as often wrongly assumed, but spread over 7 (touching 8 calendar) days and even included previous activities such as the selection of the lamb, purification and travelling to Jerusalem. 'Passover' / 'Feast of Unleavened Bread' are two interchangeable names standing biblically for the exact same period of time. The 'Passover Meal' initiated the festival, but the Bible sometimes uses the term 'Passover' also for the 7 days.

Now the Feast of Unleavened (Bread) [G106 ΑΖΥΜΩΝ, Azumon] drew near, which is called the Passover [G3957 ΠΑΣΧΑ, Pascha].
 So they ate the food of the festival for seven days [Abib 15-21], sacrificing peace offerings [also contradicting the possibility that IESOUS resurrected before the end of those sacrifices] and giving thanks to KYRIOS, the THEOS of their fathers.
 And the children of the captivity kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month. [...] And they kept the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days with gladness ...
 ... he proceeded to arrest Peter also. This was during the days of Unleavened Bread. And when he had seized him, he put him in prison [...] intending after the Passover [proof for spreading over 7 days] to bring him out to the people.

The seventh and last day of the Passover was nearly as important as the first day. Both days are Holy Days / Holy Assemblies / Sabbath of Sabbaths. The last day of the Feast of Booths / Tabernacles is even described as - the great day - .
 ... On the first day a holy assembly and on the seventh day a holy assembly [not a Weekly Sabbath, ...] you will eat unleavened bread until the evening of the twenty-first day ...
 Now on the last day of the feast [Feast of Booths / Tabernacles] - the great day - IESOUS stood and cried out, saying, "If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me, and let him drink,

The Passover lamb was not eaten on Abib 12 or 13th as often wrongly accommodated, but always on the 14th from evening until morning. The Bible even defines the exception and precise alternate date for absentees (Num 9:13; exactly 1 month later; on Ziv 14th).
 "You will keep it [the lamb] until the fourteenth day of this month, and ... will slaughter it at twilight. [...] And they will eat the meat on this night [...] And you must not leave any of it until morning [...] It is the Passover of KYRIOS ...
 And they slaughtered the Passover lamb on the fourteenth day of the second month.
 [Josiah's Passover, which was bigger than usual and took even until the morning:]
 And they slew the Passover, and the priests sprinkled the blood from their hand, and the Levites flayed the victims. And they prepared the whole-burnt-offering to give to them, according to the division by the houses of families, even to the sons of the people, to offer to KYRIOS, as it is written in the book of Moses. And thus they did till the morning. And they roasted the Passover with fire according to the ordinance; and boiled the holy pieces in copper vessels and caldrons, and the feast went on well, and they quickly served all the children of the people. And after they had prepared for themselves and for the priests, for the priests were engaged in offering the whole-burnt-offerings and the fat until night, then the Levites prepared for themselves, and for their brethren the sons of Aaron.

The eating of the Passover lamb on Abib 14 was so important for CHRISTOS that He organized in advance a secret place in the privacy of a second floor -shown to the disciples only by following a man with a water jar- where they would not be discovered.
 And he will show you a large furnished upstairs room. Make preparations there." [...] And He said to them, "I have earnestly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer.

The Passover lamb could only be eaten in Jerusalem. No matter where a participant was located, he had to make providence in order to arrive before the designated time.
 You are not allowed to offer the Passover sacrifice in one of your towns that KYRIOS your THEOS is giving to you, but only at the place that KYRIOS your THEOS will choose [Jerusalem], to let his name dwell there; you shall offer the Passover sacrifice in the evening at sunset, at the designated time of your going out from Egypt.

The Return Travel

The two travellers left Jerusalem for Emmaus, in order to return to their homes after the Passover week. Fact: They left the very same day after CHRISTOS had risen in the morning (Abib 23; after the Weekly Sabbath). If CHRISTOS would have risen on Abib 16 (beginning of Passover Week) as traditionally proposed, then the two travellers would have left the festival one entire week too early. But we do not find any hint or explanation for such a premature departure, nor does it make any sense that CHRISTOS would have precisely chosen to appear to two unfaithful travellers who did not even take the Passover seriously enough to celebrate it in its entirety.

1-Abib 23
 That very day two of them were going to a village named Emmaus [...] While they were talking and discussing together, IESOUS Himself drew near and went with them. [...] Then one of them, named Cleopas, answered Him, "Are you the only visitor to Jerusalem who does not know the things that have happened there in these days?" [...] "Concerning IESOUS OF NAZARETH, a Man who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before THEOS and all the people, and how our chief priests and rulers delivered Him up to be condemned to death, and crucified Him. [...] Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things happened. [Since the crucifixion ...] "Did not our hearts burn within us while He talked to us on the road, while He opened to us the Scriptures?" And they rose that same hour and returned to Jerusalem. And they found the eleven and those who were with them gathered together, saying, "KYRIOS has risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon!"
 Luk 24:13-34

7-Ethanim 23
 The return travel on the 23rd day of the month is most remarkably affirmed by the Feast of Tabernacles, where the Bible clearly specifies that Solomon sent the people on their way home on that precise day of the month, the 23rd of the month Ethanim (Seventh Month). The Feast of Tabernacles also started officially on the 15th day of the month.
 On the fifteenth day of this seventh month, there shall be a feast of tabernacles seven days to KYRIOS. On the fifteenth day of this seventh month, there shall be a Feast of Tabernacles seven days to KYRIOS. 35 And on the first day shall be a Holy Convocation; you shall do no servile work. 36 Seven days shall you offer whole-burnt-offerings to KYRIOS, and the eighth-day shall be a Holy Convocation to you; and you shall offer whole-burnt-offerings to KYRIOS: it is a time of release [so was IESOUS 'released' from the tomb in the precise moment the eighth day since the beginning of the Passover Week would finish; Greek ΕΞΟΔΙΟΝ, exodion: belonging to an exit], ye shall do no servile work.
 And Solomon kept the feast at that time seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great assembly, from the entering in of Zmath, and as far as the river of Egypt. And on the eighth day [which was an ordinary Sabbath after the Passover Week and had possibly a symbolic character connected to Atonement; see last page with the meaning of numbers] he kept a solemn assembly: for he kept a feast of seven days as the dedication of the altar.
 And on the twenty-third day of the seventh month he dismissed the people to their tents, rejoicing, and with a glad heart because of the good deeds which KYRIOS had done to David, and to Solomon, and to Israel His people.

What Constitutes a Biblical Day?

A Biblical Day

- A biblically defined day does not start in the evening, but always at sunrise.
Exceptions: 2 out of 7 Sabbath of Sabbaths (Day of Atonement and Passover) started at sunset. We do not know if this rather implied only those 2 -, or if all the 7 Sabbath of Sabbaths, but it is absolutely certain that this timing did not affect the Weekly Sabbath or any ordinary weekday.

[Exception #1 – Day of Atonement] ... from evening to evening [specifically mentioned because of deviation from general rule; no specific reason provided] you must observe your Sabbath of Sabbaths .”	Lev 23:32
[Exception #2 – Passover] ... you shall offer the Passover sacrifice in the evening at sunset , at the designated time of your going out from Egypt [= a very specific reason for the exception is provided, following the historical origin when the firstborn were killed at night and the lamb had to be eaten between sunset and midnight].	Deu 16:6
And they slew the Passover, and the priests sprinkled the blood from their hand, and the Levites flayed the victims. [...] And thus they did till the morning . And they roasted the Passover with fire according to the ordinance; and boiled the holy pieces in copper vessels and caldrons, and the feast went on well, and they quickly served all the children of the people.	2Chr 35:11-13

- We know from history that Jews often interpreted the Bible correctly, but that they sometimes misinterpreted or over-interpreted certain Scriptures. This does not only become obvious through the rhythm of the day, but also through their unbiblical observance of the New Year in a month different than Passover (7th month in the Jewish Mainstream), and through the modern observance of festivals such as the Day of Atonement undoubtedly abolished by IESOUS CHRISTOS.

... for you are all sons of light and sons of day . We are not of the night nor of darkness.	1The 5:5

- All biblical times of a day are counted from sunrise, not from sunset:

1st hour of the day	=	6-7am (sunrise)
3rd hour of the night	=	9am (Mat 20:3, Mat 27:45, Mar 15:25, Mar 15:33, Act 2:15)
6th hour of the day	=	12m (Mat 20:5, Mat 27:45, Mar 15:33, Luk 23:44, Joh 4:6, Joh 19:14, Act 10:9)
7th hour of the day	=	1pm (Joh 4:52)
9th hour of the day	=	3pm (Mat 20:5, Mat 27:45-6, Mar 15:33, Luk 23:44, Act 3:1, Act 10:3, 30)
10th hour of the day	=	4pm (Joh 1:39)
11th hour of the day	=	5pm (Mat 20:6, 9, the last worker still gets a wage)
3rd hour of the night	=	9pm (Act 23:23)

3 Days & 3 Nights

3 Days & 2 Nights?

- IESOUS did not rise within 3 days including the day of crucifixion, but clearly 3 days after the day of crucifixion. The prepositions 'after', 'since' and 'until' are used several times and self-sufficiently prove this fact. The '3 days and 2 nights misinterpretation' manually accommodated that IESOUS died on a Friday and rose on a Sunday. But a manual translation of the biblical calendar into our Gregorian calendar should never be the reason to question the Bible, which precisely states that IESOUS was in the tomb for '3 (continuous) days and 3 nights' (Mat 12:40). The term 'nights' is irrefutable – only the term 'days' could be interpreted. We should never allow the Bible to become an idiomatic rhetorical device when clear facts are presented by THEOS.

- A) Verses that are not conclusive when it comes to the question if the 'nights' are literal nights or simply part of an expression of 'days and nights' with the possible allowance of neglecting the count of nights:

And the rain came upon the earth forty days and forty nights .	Gen 7:12
... and Moses was on the mountain forty days and forty nights .	Exo 24:18
So he [Elijah] got up, ate, drank, and went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights up to Horeb ...	1Kin 19:8
Then they sat with him [Job] on the ground for seven days and seven nights , but no one spoke a word to him ...	Job 2:13
... Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights .	Jon 1:17
... and having fasted forty days and forty nights , He eventually was hungry.	Mat 4:2
[Prophecy] ... so will be the SON of man in the heart of the earth three days and three nights .	Mat 12:40

- B) Verses that are not conclusive when it comes to the question if the third day is inclusive or consecutive (third day after):

... he gathered them into the prison for three days . On the third day Joseph said to them, "Do this and you will live ...	Gen 42:17
"Go, gather all the Jews that are found in Susa and fast for me; do not eat or drink for three days , both night and day [...] And it happened, on the third day , and Esther ... stood in the inner courtyard of the king's palace ...	Est 4:16 - 5:4

- C) Verses that are perfectly conclusive when it comes to the question if the third day is inclusive or consecutive:

"Master, we were reminded that this one, the liar, said while still living: After [Strong's G3326, META, meta, after (-ward), follow, hereafter, since] three days I will be raised.' Order therefore the tomb to be secured until [Strong's G2193, EOC, heos, until, - even (until, unto), (hither-, un-, up) to] the third day [the word 'until' also excludes an inclusive count because a hypothetical use of 'until the first day' would be identical with day 1 and would lose its distinguishing feature] lest coming his disciples, they might steal him! ...	Mat 27:63-64 G3326 G2193
... it was necessary for the SON of man to suffer many things and [...] to be killed, and after [Strong's G3326, META, meta, after(-ward), follow, hereafter, since] three days to rise.	Mar 8:31 G3326
... the stone had been rolled away from the tomb [...] this is the third day since [Strong's G575, ΑΠΟ, apo, (here-) after, ago, from, since, with. Usually denotes separation, departure, cessation, etc.] these things took place ...	Luk 24:1-21 G575

A Sabbath of Sabbaths, followed by a Weekly Sabbath.

2 Types of Sabbaths

The Bible describes 2 different types of 'Sabbaths'.

- The Weekly Sabbath which stands for the seventh day of every ordinary week, and
- The Sabbaths of Sabbaths (term Greek OT) / Extraordinary Sabbaths (Hebrew OT) describe the 7 annual feasts:

"These are KYRIOS' appointed times, holy assemblies, which you shall proclaim at their appointed time. In the first month, on the fourteenth of the month at the evening is the Passover of KYRIOS. And on the fifteenth day of this month is KYRIOS' Feast of Unleavened Bread; for seven days you shall eat unleavened bread. On the first day there shall be a holy assembly for you [...] on the seventh day there shall be a holy assembly [...]"

32 It is a Sabbath of complete rest for you, and you shall deny yourselves on the ninth day of the month in the evening [Day of Atonement] - from evening to evening you must observe your Extraordinary Sabbath."

32 CABBATA CABBATON ECTAI YMIN, KAI TAI EINOCE TE TAC ΨΥΧΑΣ ΥΜΩΝ. ΑΙΟ ΕΝΑΤΗC ΤΟΥ ΜΗΝΟC ΑΙΟ ΕCΤΙ ΕΡΑC ΕΩC ΕCΤΙ ΕΡΑC CABBATIE TE CABBATA ΥΜΩΝ.

32 A Sabbath of Sabbaths it will be to you. And you shall humble your souls from the ninth of the month. From evening to evening you shall observe the Sabbath of your Sabbaths." [the biblical definition = 'Extraordinary Sabbath'].

Exo 12:16-18

Defining Preparation / Foresabbath

The (day of) Preparation is a decisive and often overlooked element when it comes to the definition of the Passover schedule.

Albert Barnes describes the Day of Preparation as follows: "The Preparation ... - The following day was to be a day of special solemnity, called the "great day" of the feast. More than ordinary preparation was therefore made for "that" Sabbath on the day before. Hence, the day was known as a Day of Preparation. This consisted in the preparation of food, etc., to be used on the Sabbath."

Strong's defines the word behind 'Preparation' with 'G3904, ΠΑΡΑΣΚΕΥΗ, paraskeuē par-ask-yoo-ay', as if from G3903; readiness: - preparation. Total KJV occurrences: 6:

But on the next day, which is after the Preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees were gathered before Pilate, [= they met on the Sabbaths of Sabbaths, not on the Weekly Sabbath], telling: "Master, we were reminded that this one, the liar, said while still living: 'After three days I will be raised'. Order therefore the tomb to be secured until the third day ...

And now evening having come, seeing it was the Preparation, that is, the Foresabbath [Strong's G4315 ΠΡΟ- CABBATON, prosabbaton; a fore sabbath, that is, the sabbath eve: - day before the sabbath > Strong's lacks here the differentiation between a Weekly Sabbath and the Sabbaths of Sabbaths, but it is clear from many Jewish sources and especially from Joh 19:31, that 'Preparation' always involved the Sabbath of Sabbaths; a Weekly Sabbath involves preparation of meals, but does not require an entire day specified as such], Joseph of Arimathea, an honourable counsellor, who also himself was waiting for the reign of THEOS, came, boldly entered in unto Pilate, and asked the body of IESOUS.

And the day was a Preparation, and Sabbath [of Sabbaths] was approaching, and the women also who have come with him out of Galilee having followed after, beheld the tomb, and how His body was placed. [break] And having turned back, they made ready spices and ointments, and on the [Weekly] Sabbath, indeed, they rested, according to the command.

Pilate, therefore, having heard this word, brought IESOUS without - and he sat down upon the tribunal - to a place called, 'Pavement,' and in Hebrew, Gabbatha; and it was the Preparation of the Passover [the second day of Preparation during the Passover Week, not the Day of Preparation preceding the Passover Week], and as it were the sixth hour, and he saith to the Jews, 'Lo, your king!' and they cried out, 'Take away, take away, crucify Him ...

The Jews, therefore, that the bodies might not remain on the cross on the Sabbath [of Sabbaths], since it was the Preparation, (for that Sabbath day was a great one.) [preparation for the 'important day' and obviously not for an ordinary Weekly Sabbath, as often claimed by scholars who want to make fit the fast-track-trial theology, and who quote other verses which include the Day of Preparation, but leave out Joh 19:31] asked of Pilate that their legs may be broken, and they taken away.

And there was in the place where He was crucified a garden, and in the garden a new tomb, in which no one was yet laid; there, therefore, because of the Preparation of the Jews [another pointer to the Sabbath of Sabbaths, being a very specific Holy Day of the Jews], because the tomb was nigh, they laid IESOUS.

Luk 24:1

-The Decisive Section-

This narrows the date of the crucifixion down to two days - to either A) the day before Abib 15th or B) the day before Abib 21st.

A) If the Day of Preparation in Joh 19:31 refers to Abib 14th, IESOUS could not have consumed the obligatory Passover Lamb in the evening. The Bible is crystal clear that IESOUS ate it on the first evening of the festival, not (in) the day(s) before as often wrongly accommodated in order to still match the 3 nights.

Now on the first of the Unleavened, [when the Feast was about to start in the evening of Abib 14th] the disciples approached IESOUS, saying: "Where do you desire, should we prepare for you to eat the Pascha?" [...] with you I am practicing the Pascha with my disciples.' And the disciples did as IESOUS appointed to them, and prepared the Pascha. Now evening having come, He was dining with the twelve.

B) If the Day of Preparation refers to Abib 20th, then and only then can all the biblical conditions be fulfilled without bending any condition. IESOUS ate the Passover Lamb on the first Day of Preparation (Abib 14th), was arrested in that same night, and was crucified on the second Day of Preparation (Abib 20th) after having passed through 6 tedious trials.

The only sequence of 2 consecutive Sabbaths occurs on Abib 21st and 22nd. At the beginning of the Passover Week the 2 types of Sabbaths overlap, not allowing for a purchase of the burial spices in between (I):

The Burial Spices

2 consecutive Sabbaths are also proven by the supposing -contradiction- between Mar 16:1 (the women purchased burial spices "when the Sabbath ended") and Luk 23:56 (the Sabbath began "by the time they were finished" preparing the spices). The calendar on page 9 shows the precise moment the purchase and the preparation happened, after the Sabbath of Sabbaths ended at sunset and the Weekly Sabbath started like any other day the next morning (see on page 4 also the definition of a biblical day).

And now evening having come, seeing it was the Preparation [always for a Sabbath of Sabbaths, not a Weekly Sabbath!], that is, the foresabbath, Joseph of Arimathea, an honourable counsellor, who also himself was waiting for the reign of THEOS, came, boldly entered in unto Pilate, and asked the body of IESOUS.

And on the First of the Sabbaths, at early dawn, they came to the tomb, bearing the spices they made ready, and certain [others] with them, and they found the stone having been rolled away from the tomb ...

Correcting Historical Misconceptions.

The First Fruits And IESOUS

- IESOUS is not only the First Fruit of all those who have fallen asleep, but even resurrected on the precise Day the First Fruits. But now CHRISTOS has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep. 1Cor 15:20
- IESOUS resurrected on Abib 23, incorporating the first fruit in a spiritual, physical and exemplary manner.
- Many interpretations have been made amongst scholars, Pharisees, Sadducees and other people groups about the dating of the Day of First Fruits (also called Wave Sheaf Offering according to the biblical context) and consequently the start point for the counting of 50 days towards Pentecost. Most often this day is arranged with Abib 16 (2nd day of the 7-day Passover).

10 Arguments why the Day of First Fruits cannot occur –during–, but must occur –after– the Passover week:

1 Biblical Narrative Thread

- The narrative thread of all biblical feasts in Lev 23 and Deu 16 advances from the beginning to the end of the year:

Month	Lev 23	Deu 16	Event	Observance
1st Month	Lev 23:4-8	Deu 16:1-8	Passover, Day 1-6	Observed
1st Month	Lev 23:8	Deu 16:8	Passover, Day 7	Observed
1st Month	Lev 23:9-14	Deu 16:9	Wave Sheaf Offering	Observed
3rd Month	Lev 23:15-22	Deu 16:10-12	Feast of Weeks / Harvest	Observed
7th Month	Lev 23:23-25	-	Feast of Trumpets	Observed
7th Month	Lev 23:26-32	-	Day of Atonement	Observed
7th Month	Lev 23:33-36	Deu 16:13-15	Feast of Booths	Observed

To now assume that the Day of First Fruits occurred not after, but during the Passover week, is to overthrow the narrative thread and to inject this important event in between verses 7 and 8 of Lev 23 and Deu 16. Most Bible translations even emphasize the narrative thread by inserting the Day of First Fruits as a new paragraph after the Passover, but Mainstream Judaism is pretending that the Wave Sheaf Offering effectively overlaps with the Passover week.

This misinterpretation can probably be attributed to the highly irregular observance of the Passover – with some gaps of hundreds of years. The correct interpretation of Scripture would have been easily lost, if the biblically based custom would not have been handed down from generation to generation.

- [715 BC HEZEKIAH'S PASSOVER] And it happened that the runners were passing from city to city in the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, and up to Zebulun, but they were laughing at them and mocking them. Only men from Asher, Manasseh, and Zebulun humbled themselves and came to Jerusalem. [...] And they rose up and removed the altars that were in Jerusalem. [...] And they slaughtered the Passover lamb on the fourteenth day of the second month.
- [623 BC JOSIAH'S PASSOVER - the greatest Passover ever celebrated] ... And the king commanded all the people, saying, Keep the Passover to KYRIOS your THEOS, as it is written in the book of this covenant. 22 For a Passover such as this had not been kept from the days of the Judges who judged Israel, even all the days of the kings of Israel, and of the kings of Juda. 23 But in the eighteenth year of king Josias, was the Passover kept to KYRIOS in Jerusalem.
- ... Hilkiah the priest found the Book of the Law of KYRIOS given through Moses. [...] And when the king [Josias] heard the words of the Law, he tore his clothes. [...] our fathers have not kept the word of KYRIOS ...
- [516 BC EZRA'S PASSOVER] And the children of the captivity kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month. 20 For the priests and Levites were purified, all were clean to a man, and they slew the Passover for all the children of the captivity, and for their brethren the priests, and for themselves. 21 And the children of Israel ate the Passover, even they that were of the captivity, and every one who separated himself to them from the uncleanness of the nations of the land, to seek KYRIOS THEOS of Israel. 22 And they kept the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days with gladness, because KYRIOS made them glad, and he turned the heart of the king of Assyria to them, to strengthen their hands in the works of the house of THEOS of Israel.
- [135 AD BAR KUCHBA REVOLT] After the Bar Kochba revolt, which lasted from 132 - 135 AD and cost the life of probably more than 600.000 Jews, the very few remaining Jews were banned for centuries from entering Jerusalem. The Aliyah started only in 1881 AD with the first Jews returning to the former land of Israel. This and several reforms in Jewish calendars made it very difficult to determine the date of Passover, let alone to define the precise date for the Day of First Fruits.

Other possible reasons:
 A) in order to distract from the resurrection of CHRISTOS on this precise day of First Fruits and / or
 B) simply extrapolating this date from the earlier crucifixion date.
 Fact: The interpretation of the phrase "the morrow after the Sabbaths" has been debated for centuries, if not thousands of years.

2 Plural Sabbaths

- The Day of First Fruits occurred the day after the Sabbath (wrongly made singular in most Bible translations). This plural of 'Sabbaths' usually points to a specific 'week' (see also Mat 28:1 where the word 'CABBATON' is being used in the same Genitive Plural Neuter and clearly refers to a week with its Weekly Sabbath at the end).

... And from the day after the Sabbaths [plural in the Greek OT], from the day on which you bring the sheaf of the addition, you shall count off seven whole weeks.
 And you shall count to yourselves from the next day of the Sabbaths ...

Now at the close of Sabbaths [when the week came to a close], unto the dawning into (the) first of Sabbaths [greek 'eis mian sabbatwn'; 1st day of the week following the 7th day of the week], came Mary the Magdalene and the other Mary, to behold the tomb.

3 After The Sabbaths

- All feasts mentioned in Leviticus 23 come with a precise date, except the Day of First Fruits, simply stated be the 'day after the Sabbaths' = after the Passover week.

When it says 'after the week' with the explicit article 'the', then which week is meant? Is it the rather unimportant week before the Passover Week, or much rather referring to the Passover Week? It would indeed require much mental acrobatics to make this week refer to the previous week leading to the Passover, but to our surprise this particular interpretation has been widely accepted, often while not being aware of the plural.

The traditional interpretation is Abib 15 / 16, but it makes more sense – having now seen the narrative thread– that not the first Weekly Sabbath, but the whole Passover Week including all 4 related (Weekly) Sabbaths (of Sabbaths) is meant. The Bible is perfectly precise when it comes to important days and it would surely specify it if a date within the Passover Week would be the pointer for Pentecost. But the absence of a better recognisable definition can only point to the last Sabbath – following the meaning of the word 'after'.

After the sabbaths = after the Passover Week

* Beta Israel (literally: 'house of Israel' in Arabic) are a significant community of Jews who originated earliest with the Queen of Sheba (9th c. BC), many during Babylonian (6th c BC) and came as late as 1st c. AD., and who preserved the biblical traditions of ancient Israel much better than Mainstream Judaism in Israel.

They had for centuries not even been aware of the 2nd Temple and do (or did) not know the 2c AD Talmud, Mishna and other canonical theology adaptation to modern age. They are probably the best reference for many practices related to ancient Judaism, but scholarship has sadly given very little attention to them.

From 1948 until 2013, a total of 1,121,000 Ethiopian Jews (ex-estimated) immigrated to Israel through sometimes spectacular operations involving hundreds of airlifts often done in secret, and had been widely forced to conform to Mainstream Judaism and to lose their biblical traditions. Rabbi David ben-Zion's pan-African conversion to Judaism of all Beta Israel upon their arrival in the State of Israel and a declaration of submission to the way of life of Hebrews, or doctrine and practice of Orthodox Judaism.

CONCLUSION: It becomes clear that the observance by Mainstream Judaism is not only contradicting the narrative thread, but directly the Word of THEOS by ignoring the wording 'after the Sabbaths'. We do not know why Mainstream Judaism (except the Essenes in Qumran) celebrates the Day of First Fruits one entire week earlier, but we can conclude that ...

A) they either lost the precise tradition in the chaos of Babylon, the Jewish-Roman wars culminating in the Bar Kochba revolt which caused them to move their intellectual and scholastic center from Jerusalem to Zippori (-140-220 AD) and then once again to Tiberias (220-425 AD), and especially in the diaspora (scattering across the world) which lasted at least until 1881 AD (still ongoing) and made them almost lose their Modern Hebrew language revived only in 1880 AD, or that

B) they intentionally changed the schedule in order to distract from the fact that CHRISTOS rose as the First Fruit, only hours before the First Fruits Offering took place. Rabbi Akiva and his proteges Aquila and Yose ben Halafra orchestrated many changes in the 2c AD, most of which had either nothing to do with the Bible or directly opposed it. They went as far as to proclaim Bar Kochba as messiah instead of IESOUS, enabling him to start a revolt which had even more catastrophic consequences than the First Jewish-Roman war which culminated in the destruction of the Temple. Very few Jews survived and the spiritual oversight in Zippori was close to zero compared to Jerusalem.

4 Harvest During The Festival?

- It does not make sense that the Jews began their harvest in the midst of the Passover festival, meaning that they would send out a significant part of the population (harvesters and many seasonal helpers) who would otherwise celebrate the festival. The attending operation still requires today many hours of overtime, being the busiest time of the year for a farmer.

"You shall count off seven weeks for you; from the time you begin to harvest the standing grain you shall begin to count seven weeks.

Deu 16:2

5 Harvest Not Ready!

- Barley is rather not ready to be harvested at the beginning of Passover. It is typically harvested some (<4) weeks after it shows 'green ears' (then being golden & bending down). The green ears are the precursor and direct reference (!) for the first month of the biblical year, which begins on the day following the first New Moon after the first green ears of Barley have been spotted.

Today, in the month of Abib [Strong's H24, אֲבִיב, 'ābīb, From an unused root (meaning to be tender); green, that is a young ear of grain; hence the name of the month Abib or Nisan: - Abib, ear, green ears of corn; same month as Passover], are going out.
 By itself the soil produces a crop: [1] first the grass, [2] then the head of grain like green ear, [3; some weeks later] then the full grain in the head [the golden ear].

1. Head of Grain / Green Ears spotted (any day after the 1st day of the 12th month).
2. A new biblical year starts with the first New Moon after the Green Ears had been spotted.
3. The harvest technically begins in lower regions, which are far from Jerusalem, but with conditions rather similar to Egypt where a month was first declared. The harvest now begins in higher regions (~92% of their cities are in the mountains).

Table 3. Harvesting and ingathering, based on modern agricultural practices in Israel

Another, but vague reference are the 10 plagues against Pharaoh. When the 7th plague of hail affected Egypt in the last days of the previous year / or first days of the new year, the barley had blossomed with green ears, what made it vulnerable to the hail. In addition, Jerusalem is located in the mountains and the harvest begins here according to the laws of nature always -1 month later (-Ziv 15th = 2nd month) than in a lower region such as Jericho or Egypt (-Abib 15th = 1st month).

And the wheat and the barley were struck [by the hail], because the barley was in the ear and the flax was in bud. But the flax and the spelt were not struck, because they are late-ripening.
Exo 9:31-32

This is another clear indication for the First Fruits Offering not having been brought at the beginning of Passover, but earliest immediately after Passover, when the harvest had at least started in the lower regions of Israel.

6 Hezekiah's Passover

- Hezekiah's Passover clearly affirms that the First Fruits / Wave Sheaf Offering had been offered after the Passover, this is especially remarkable since one month later (meaning that the Barley harvest was overdue and the wheat was already ripe), and in addition was celebrated not 7 days as usual, but plainly another 7 days (total of 14 days). Thus, the First Fruits shifted in that particular moment of history by -5 weeks and adding contrdicts a harvest during the ordinary Passover Week.

Ziv 14-21 (2nd month)	Passover celebrated as an exception in the 2nd Month.	For the king, and the princes, and all the congregation in Jerusalem, designed to keep the Passover in the second month. 3 For they could not keep it at that time, because a sufficient number of priests had not purified themselves, and the people was not gathered to Jerusalem. [...] Then they killed the Passover on the fourteenth day of the second month ...	2Chr 31:2-15
Ziv 22-28 (2nd month)	The Israelites spontaneously added another 7 days of celebration.	And the children of Israel who were present in Jerusalem kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with great joy [...] And the congregation purposed together to keep other seven days; and they kept seven days with gladness. [...] from the days of Solomon the son of David king of Israel there was not such a feast in Jerusalem.	2Chr 31:21-26
Sivan (3rd month)	The passage to the right is precise when stating that the First Fruits (Strong's G757) ΗΠΑΝΤΟ, exantō, 'strong's' (G757) is the first month, and Passover Week, in the second month!	And as he gave the command, Israel brought abundantly first-fruits of corn, and wine, and oil, and honey, and every fruit of the field: and the children of Israel and Juda brought tithes of everything abundantly. 6 And they that dwelt in the cities of Juda themselves also brought tithes of calves and sheep, and tithes of goats, and consecrated them to the KYRIOS their THEOS, and they brought them and laid them in heaps. In the third month the heaps began to be piled, and in the seventh month they were finished.	2Chr 31:5-7 (Marvel Bible)

7 Leaven Forbidden

- Leaven was strictly forbidden during the entire Feast of Passover / Unleavened Bread and knowing that the First Harvest (of Barley) was preceded by the partial fasting from all leavened bread during Passover, any earlier dating can be ruled out – with the logical consequence pointing towards the first Weekly Sabbath after the Passover Feast, plus 1 day. It should be particularly apparent that a celebration related to bread cannot occur while a feast excluding most bread is happening. The biblical account is outmost logical – 7 days of partial fast preparing for the arrival of the new bread, followed by the Day of First Fruits.

And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the Feast of Unleavened Bread to KYRIOS; seven days you shall eat unleavened things. [...] And you shall not eat bread or anything made thereof with the very day, until you have eaten only the bread of unleavened bread, [...] [untill]= indicating a previous partial fasting – most probably referring to the entire Festival of Unleavened Bread, but commonly accommodated meaning a bread without leaven

And they baked the dough that they had brought out from Egypt, unleavened bread, because it had no yeast when they were driven out from Egypt, and they were not able to delay ...
Exo 12:29

Unleavened bread will be eaten the seven days; food with yeast will not be seen for you ...
Exo 13:7

No one puts a new new wine into old wineskins [not the same context, but an important parallelism: IESOUS means the new wine, while the days of Unleavened Bread much rather equates to old wineskins]. And if not, the wineskins surely do burst, and the wine is spilled and the wineskins are destroyed. But they pour new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved."
Mar 9:17-17

8 ≠ Time of Affliction

- The most evident point is the fact that CHRISTOS would have impossibly risen and resurrected in a time biblically declared as time of affliction. He indeed died in the time of affliction, but resurrected immediately after this time.

You shall not eat with it anything leavened; seven days you shall eat with it unleavened bread of affliction [Strong's G2561 ΚΑΚΩCΕΩC = depression, misery, affliction, trouble, ill-treatment, oppression], because in haste you went out from the land of Egypt, so that you will remember the day of your going out from the land of Egypt all the days of your life.
 He was oppressed and afflicted, yet he did not open his mouth; he was brought like a lamb to the slaughter, and like a sheep is dumb before its shearers, so he did not open his mouth.
Deu 16:3
G2561
G6040
Isa 53:7

9 First Fruits = New, Leavened Bread

- If IESOUS would have been resurrected in the days of the Unleavened Bread (time of 'purification'), He would logically not symbolize bread in its entirety. IESOUS died in the time of the Unleavened Bread and resurrected on the precise day leavened bread was eaten again, being the First Fruit and the -absolute- Bread of life. What a wonderful perfection and symbolism.

... He committed to them another parable, saying, "The Kingdom of the Heavens [initiated through CHRISTOS] is like leaven [no leaven during Passover], which having taken, a woman hid in three measures of flour [possible allusion to the 3 days and 3 nights in the tomb], until all of that was leavened."
 Now if the first fruits are leaven, so also is the bread that is of it, and if the root is holy, so also are the branches. Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little [old / bud] leaven leavens the whole batch of dough? Clean out the old leaven in order that you may be a new batch of dough, just as you are unleavened. For CHRISTOS our Passover has been sacrificed. So then, let us celebrate the feast, not with the old leaven or with the leaven of wickedness and sinfulness, but with the unleavened [uncorrupted; bread of] sincerity and truth.
Mat 13:33
Rom 11:16
1Cor 5:6-8

10 Bread of Life

- IESOUS is the bread of life, not coincidentally born in the house of bread (Bethlehem - Beth as in 'Beth-el' = 'house of THEOS' and 'Lehem' = 'bread').

... my FATHER is giving you the true bread from Heaven! For the bread of THEOS is the One who comes down from Heaven and gives life to the world. [...] IESOUS said to them, "I am the bread of life ..."
 "... Truly, truly, I say to you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven, but my FATHER gives you the true bread from Heaven. For the bread of THEOS is He who comes down from Heaven and gives life to the world. [...] I am the bread of life. Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. This is the bread that comes down from Heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die [points to resurrection of IESOUS and later to us]. I am the living bread that came down from Heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever. And the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh [crucifixion]. [...] Whoever feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me, and I in him.
Joh 6:32-35

Further Important Questions and Findings.

Did
Judas
Really
Die
-After-
IESOUS?

Some scholars try to accommodate Judas' death after IESOUS' death. This firstly contradicts the narrative thread in Matthew 27, where Judas' death and the final purchase of the potter's field both happened before IESOUS' death and even before His first trial before Pilate. A field could not be purchased without the involvement of Roman officials (plus payment of taxes) and therefore took time (impossibly some hours in the night; in our societies usually days or weeks). It also does not seem plausible to have Judas die on the very same day as IESOUS and therefore to take away significance from IESOUS' death, but he rather died in the hours after he knew that IESOUS was going to be condemned – and several days before IESOUS.

1. [Purchase procedure from the 'pre-Roman' time, showing how well-structured a purchase even amongst relatives had been; involving 7 steps which are impossibly done within a few night hours:]
And I bought the field at Anathoth from Hanamel my cousin, and weighed out the money to him [Step #1, not identical with #5], seventeen shekels of silver. I signed the deed [Step #2], sealed it [Step #3], got witnesses [Step #4], and weighed the money on scales [Step #5]. Then I took the sealed deed of purchase [Step #6], containing the terms and conditions and the open copy. And I gave the deed of purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah son of Mahseiah, in the presence of Hanamel my cousin, in the presence of the witnesses who signed the deed of purchase, and in the presence of all the Judeans who were sitting in the court of the guard [Step #7].

Jer
32:9-44

2. Judas received the blood money on Abib 13 or 14 and most probably wanted to get rid of the morally "dirty" silver – as soon as possible after the decision made by the Sanhedrin / High Council. He –might– have initiated the purchase of the potter's field as indicated in Acts 1:18, but threw the silver in the Temple before concluding the purchase. Then he hanged himself on this field on Abib 15 and the priests decided on Abib 16 to finalize the purchase with the very same silver.

3. The sale to the leading priests could have impossibly taken place between the betrayal around midnight and an assumed trial before Pilate before the sunrise. Some people might argue that Judas' death and the transaction of the purchase of the field could have happened after IESOUS' death, but IESOUS' death washed everything "white", dead people were coming out of their graves and it simply is not logical to assume that there was sin literally rotting in the world directly related to IESOUS' death, while all past sin was nailed to the cross. A vague, but good comparison can also be made to the flood, when Noah only left the ark on the very same day the raven – standing for death – had returned, after it found no more dead flesh on earth. (► see study 'The Flood')

IESOUS
Taught
Every Day
In The Temple.

The Bible clearly states that IESOUS was teaching "every day" in the Temple courts, after His arrival and brief visit on Abib 10 – the day the lambs were brought into the homes and He entered Jerusalem as the LAMB of THEOS. This obviously contradicts an accommodation of His death towards Abib 12 or 13, because the wording "every day" clearly expresses a repetition of at least 3 times – if not other forms of expression would have been chosen by the writers. It becomes evident that IESOUS first taught on Abib 11 and last on Abib 14 in the morning (4 repetitions).

And IESOUS entered into Jerusalem, and into the Temple [Abib 10]. And having looked round on all things, it being now evening [= no teaching], He went forth to Bethany with the twelve.

Mar
11:11

And He was teaching every day in the Temple courts, and the chief priests and the scribes and the most prominent men of the people were seeking to destroy Him.

Luk
19:47

And all the people were getting up very early in the morning to come to Him in the Temple courts to listen to Him.

Luk 21:38

In that hour spoke IESOUS to the multitudes: "Have you come out as against a robber, to arrest me with swords and sticks? Every day (ΚΑΘ ΗΜΕΡΑΝ – kath hemeran) I was sitting in the Temple teaching, and you did not seize me."

Mat
26:55

Must IESOUS
Have Died
In The Night
Of The Passover
Lamb?

IESOUS died symbolically as the Passover Lamb. But this does not mean that He died exactly in the night of the Passover Meal (Abib 14/15). Even the traditional interpretation of scholars would not fulfill this typology, because the lamb had to be fully consumed before the morning came (Exo 12:9-10, 2Chr 35:13), but IESOUS died here only ~6 hours later at noon!

IESOUS died consequently on any of the 7 days of Passover (excluding at the same time that he died before Passover). The symbolic character is not eliminated by IESOUS having eaten the Passover Lamb on the stipulated evening of the 14th and having died only 6 days later during the festival. The passage from Mat 26:5 "Not during the feast, so that there will not be an uproar among the people." clearly underlines this, by rather pointing not to the beginning, but toward the end of the Passover week, when some travellers would already have left Jerusalem (Deu 16:7) and negative repercussions and loss of profit would be lesser for the Jews.

... For CHRISTOS, our Passover lamb [word 'lamb' wrongly added in AMP, BSB, CJB, ESV, NIV], has been sacrificed.

1Cor
5:6-8

... For CHRISTOS our Passover [it says only 'Passover', not 'Passover lamb'] has been sacrificed ...

He was oppressed and afflicted, yet He did not open his mouth; He was brought like a lamb to the slaughter, and like a sheep is dumb before its shearers, so He did not open his mouth.

Isa
53:7

On the next day he saw IESOUS coming to him and said, "Look! The LAMB of THEOS who takes away the sin of the world!"

Joh 1:29

And I heard every creature that is in Heaven and on the earth and under the earth and in the sea and everything in them saying, "To the One who is seated on the throne and to the LAMB be praise ..."

Rev

The Legal Procedure.

The Jews' principal intention was to kill IESOUS CHRISTOS, but they were not necessarily in a rush as we often assume. They were in a rush to have IESOUS disappear from the picture and to prevent Him from teaching at the Temple during the Passover festival, and they achieved this in the very last hours before the sunrise of the Sabbath Day, when they handed over IESOUS to Pilate. From that point onwards, they simply followed the official procedure and showed up whenever a decision was about to be made and they could manipulate the officials, but surely not with the hope that all the trials including 3-4 additional and non-Jewish instances would happen in one single day. The delay in the final condemnation is also underlined by their fear of being stoned by the people. They were able to manipulate and intimidate the people, but they themselves lived in constant fear of becoming victims themselves, if they would give a reason to the people:

[Trial Herod] The chief priests and the scribes stood by, vehemently accusing him.

Luk 23:10

When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard His parables, they perceived that he was speaking about them. 46 And although they were seeking to arrest Him, they feared the crowds, because they held Him to be a prophet.

Mat
21:45-46

The scribes and the chief priests sought to lay hands on Him at that very hour, for they perceived that He had told this parable against them, but they feared the people.

Luk
19:20

And the chief priests and the scribes were seeking how to put Him to death, for they feared the people.

Luk 22:2

[Later arrest of apostles] Now when the captain of the Temple and the chief priests heard these words, they were greatly perplexed about them, wondering what this would come to. 25 And someone came and told them, "Look! The men whom you put in prison are standing in the Temple and teaching the people." 26 Then the captain with the officers went and brought them, but not by force, for they were afraid of being stoned by the people.

Act
5:24-26

[5-7 years later:] About that time Herod the king [...] proceeded to arrest Peter also. This was during the days of Unleavened Bread. And when he had seized him, he put him in prison [...] intending after the Passover to bring him out to the people. [they either waited / had to wait until after the holy day of Abib 15 or until after the 7 days of Unleavened Bread passed; clearly underlining in either way that IESOUS could not have experienced several trials on Abib 15, the day after His arrest]

Act
12:1-4

If the death penalty was given, a night must legally pass before the sentence was carried out. The Mishna (very strong discernment required; Oral Law / ~1500 Jewish traditions; ► see the study 'Laws') states: "If a sentence of death is to be pronounced, it cannot be concluded before the following day." In addition, a cross had to be prepared, and the time for the organization and execution of the 2 thieves cannot simply be neglected.

No Roman trial was to be held at night (the Jews violated this rule because of their urgency, but surely not the Romans who had no urgency at all).

The Romans rested almost certainly on the very same day of Abib 15th, that equated the idolatrous day of 'Ides' on March 15th of the Roman Calendar (originally lunar; their month started also after the Crescent New Moon). On 'Ides' (Nefasti Publici), political and judicial activities were strictly prohibited for both Pilate and Herod. Therefore, several Roman trials could impossibly have been held on the first full day of the Passover, on Abib 15.

Biblical Syntax and a Look at Some Numbers.

Conceptual Leaps

When reading through the Good Message, we are often not aware of the existence of conceptual leaps, leading then consequently to the common perception of a fast-track-trial of IESOUS. This is caused by several reasons:

- 1. Translators are not always recognizing changes of hours, days or weeks, and do not translate decisive words (e.g. 'ΔΕ, de' which can mean 'and', 'but', 'then', 'moreover', 'yet' ...) in a more nuanced manner.
2. Translators do either not recognize the very important Greek Participle (e.g. having called), or they simply decide to simplify it (called), be it because it is definitely one of the more intricate parts of a translation process; sentences including it sound more convoluted and less smooth; and / or Bibles become slightly longer and therefore more expensive.
3. We do sometimes not read in the wider context, but tend in times of daily devotionals to highly selective reading.

Let us have a look at some key passages and some general examples [own comments as usual in brackets]:

Then [= leap; Strong's G1161, ΔΕ, de; also, and, but, now, then] Pilate, having called together [Participle, Aorist = ongoing action in the past; clear indication for a conceptual leap of several hours or days] the chief priests and the rulers and the people, said [2nd Aorist which rather translates to 'had said'] to them: "You brought [1st Aorist; not 'you are bringing', but 'you brought' me (earlier today or this week)] me this Man, as one misleading the people. And behold, having examined [Participle, Aorist = continuous action in the past] Him before you, I found [2nd Aorist which rather translates to 'have found'] nothing in this Man guilty of that accusation you are bringing against Him. Neither did Herod, for he sent [Aorist; another indication for a significant conceptual leap] Him back to us.

Luk 23:13-15

13 ΠΙΛΑΤΟΣ ΔΕ ΣΥΓΚΑΛΕΒΑΜΕΝΟΣ ΤΟΥΣ ΑΡΧΙΕΡΕΙΣ ΚΑΙ ΤΟΥΣ ΑΡΧΟΝΤΑΣ ΚΑΙ ΤΟΝ ΛΑΟΝ ΕΙΠΕΝ ΠΡΟΣ ΑΥΤΟΥΣ: ΠΡΟΧΗΝΕΚΤΑ ΜΟΙ ΤΟΝ ΑΝΘΡΩΠΟΝ ΤΟΥΤΟ ΩΣ ΑΠΟΣΤΡΕΦΟΝΤΑ ΤΟΝ ΛΑΟΝ, ΚΑΙ ΙΔΟΥ ΕΓΩ ΕΝΩΠΙΟΝ ΥΜΩΝ ΑΝΑΚΡΙΝΑC ΟΥΘΕΝ ΕΥΡΟΝ ΕΝ ΤΩ ΑΝΘΡΩΠΩ ΤΟΥΤΩ ΑΠΙΟΝ ΩΝ ΚΑΤΗΓΟΡΕΙΤΕ ΚΑΤ' ΑΥΤΟΥ. 15 ΑΛΛ' ΟΥΔΕ ΗΡΩΔΗΣ, ΑΝΕΠΕΜΨΕΝ ΓΑΡ ΑΥΤΟΝ ΠΡΟΣ ΗΜΑC, ΚΑΙ ΙΔΟΥ ΟΥΔ' ΕΝ ΑΞΙΟΝ ΘΑΝΑΤΟΥ ΕCΤΙΝ ΠΕΙΡΑΓΜΕΝΟΝ ΑΥΤΩ.

Then [= leap] Pilate entered again into the Praetorium [often translated with 'residence', leaving a very informal impression] and summoned IESOUS ... [clearly shows that Pilate changed his location at least twice; suggests that some hours or days had passed in between; does not allow for a fast-track-trial]

The following passage could be easily read as if the two totally separate events would happen within the same hours. But the truth is that one day passed in between the verses 10 and 11:

... "And they received the thirty silverlings ... and gave them for the field of the potter, as KYRIOS appointed to me." ... (Break of 1 day)

Mat 27:9-11

... Now [Strong's G1161, ΔΕ, de; other translations use 'so', meaning a conceptual and therefore timely leap; any time could have passed; it does rather not mean just a few hours later] IESOUS was brought before the governor ... ['was brought' = Passive, some manuscripts include here erroneously the Active*; a Passive rather implies a process 'IESOUS was brought', instead of the Active 'IESOUS stood' which expresses a singular action]

* The widely respected Nestle Aland NA28 includes the Passive (ΕCΤΑΘΗ), and also the following manuscripts: Codex Ephraemi, SBL, Codex Sinaiticus, Tischendorf, Codex Vaticanus, Westcott and Hort ... It is unknown why this word has been manipulated - possibly either because the word was only understood as 'to stand' [which cannot carry a Passive (yet the word 'histemai' can very well mean 'to bring' which must be chosen as only this word can carry a Passive = 'was brought') or there was an intentional manipulation by certain people who tried for whatever reason to paint a fast-track-trial.

Another, even more striking passage occurs just a few verses later, where the Perfect Participle is being used, which expresses that an action was completely finished [Pilate having convened the people] before another action in the main clause occurs [Pilate now speaking to the crowd who came at the appointed time to him]. That not being enough, not the Active is being used here [the crowd came together], but the Passive [the crowd 'having been convened'], which clearly implies that they were called together / invited, which in combination with the Perfect Participle is an ongoing action which required time, and certainly did not imply a Pilate who spontaneously called outside to a supposedly already waiting crowd.

Now at a feast, the governor had been accustomed to release to the multitude one prisoner, whom they were willing. But they were holding at that time a famed prisoner, called Iesous 'son of the father' [in Greek 'Barabbas'].

Mat 27:15-17

They therefore [OYN, G3767, then, therefore] having been convened [Perfect, Participle, Passive], Pilate said to them: "Whom do you wish I may release to you, (Iesous the) 'son of the father', or IESOUS the one being called CHRISTOS?"

Numbers

This study is not elaborated based on biblical numbers. At the time of the initial creation of the study I was still a skeptic when it came to the use of numbers, having seen much abuse and very few balanced Bible studies. But an in-depth-study of biblical numbers changed my perception dramatically. I then added this section 7 months after having first published the study with the precise chronology and was stunned to see that overlaying the numbers over the chronology fits perfectly.

- 6th day of Passover: IESOUS was crucified (6 = number of man and evil)
7th day of Passover: IESOUS 'rested' in the tomb (7 = number of rest)

see also the study 'Numbers'

see page 13 of this study for the details on the association between events and numbers

- Other thought-provoking numbers that simply result from the overall schedule of events:
10 days from Final Anointing of IESOUS CHRISTOS (Abib 13) - Resurrection (Abib 23)
10 days from Ascension of IESOUS CHRISTOS (Sivan 2) - Pentecost bringing the Fruits of the SPIRIT (Sivan 12)
40 days from Resurrection (Abib 23) - Ascension of IESOUS CHRISTOS (Sivan 2)
50 days from Final Anointing of IESOUS CHRISTOS (Abib 13) - Ascension of IESOUS CHRISTOS (Sivan 2)
50 days from Resurrection (Abib 23) - Pentecost (Sivan 12)

 Dark Moon (Modern New Moon)

 True New Moon (First Crescent)

- Moon Phases Calendar: Timeanddate.com
- The 'Dark Moon' lasts from 21 to 26 hours, therefore the real 'New Moon' / Waxing Crescent occurs 1 day after the date indicated in the common moon phases calendars.
- A biblical month starts on the morning after the sighting of the New Moon on the previous evening. This is not based on the modern definition using the day that was formerly called 'Dark Moon', but on the traditional definition, where the 'new' is used according to its logical meaning - the first visible crescent on the day after the moon is dark - symbolizing new beginnings, analogous to a day that does not start with darkness but with light.
- A biblical year is originally 360 days, and one month 30 days long (the Bible affirms the 360-day calendar in Rev 11:3 and Rev 13:5; compare the flood start and end date in Gen 7:10-12 and Gen 8:14-16 in the Greek Text; see also study 'Flood' with the proof of 360 days). Most probably after the flood things began to shift, and today we have slightly longer years and a mix of 29/30 days per month (lunar month = 29.53 days). This means that the month Abib (1) and Ziv (2) in the above displayed calendar could have had 29 days in the respective year which we don't know. But this has absolutely no effect on the schedule of events and would only change the date of the ascension (Sivan 3rd instead of Sivan 2nd, but remaining a 5th day of the week) and of Pentecost (Sivan 13th instead of Sivan 12th, but remaining a First Day of the week).

Preceding Events (Timeline not provided)	IESOUS predicts His death the first time.	Since then, IESOUS began to show to His disciples that it is imperative for Him to go away to Jerusalem, and to suffer much from the presbyters and chief priests and scribes, and to be killed, and to be raised the third day [the third day is defined in Luke 24:21 with "the third day –since– these things took place", not counting the day of the crucifixion as often wrongly interpreted; see Abib 23 below]. 	IESOUS predicts His death the third time (near Jericho).	... the SON of man will be delivered to the chief priests and scribes. And they will condemn Him to death. And they will deliver Him to the nations, to mock and to flog, and to crucify. And He will be raised the third day."	Mat 20:17-19

Abib 9 (Abib 15, the first full Passover Day, – 6 days)	First Day Of The Week
	IESOUS ends His stay in or near Jericho and travels to Bethany.	When they were going out from Jericho, a great multitude followed Him. And behold, two blind, seated beside the road, having heard that IESOUS is passing by, cried out, saying: "Be merciful to us, SON of David!" And they came to Jericho, and as He is going forth from Jericho, with His disciples and a great multitude, a son of Timaeus – Bartimaeus the blind – was sitting beside the way begging, and having heard that it is IESOUS the Nazarene, he began to cry out, and to say, "The SON of David – IESOUS! deal kindly with me; [...] and immediately he saw again, and was following IESOUS in the way. And having said these things, He went on before, going up to Jerusalem.	Mat 20:29-30 Mar 10:46-52 Luk 19:28
	Meanwhile, the first Passover visitors arrive at Jerusalem; Jewish leaders order to re-port IESOUS to them.	Now the Passover of the Jews was near, and many went up to Jerusalem from the surrounding country before the Passover, so that they could purify themselves. So they were looking for IESOUS [...] the chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders that if anyone knew where He was, they should report it, in order that they could arrest Him.	Joh 11:55-57
	When IESOUS approached Bethany, He sent two disciples to look for a specific donkey.	And when they drew near to Jerusalem, and came to Bethphage on the Mount of Olives, then IESOUS sent out two disciples, saying to them: "Go into the village, the one before you! And immediately you will find a donkey having been bound, and a colt with her. Having loosened, bring (them) to me! And when they came nigh to Jerusalem, to Bethphage, and Bethany, unto the mount of the Olives, He sendeth forth two of His disciples ... And having said these things, He went on before, going up to Jerusalem. And it came to pass, as He came nigh to Bethphage and Bethany, unto the mount called of the Olives, He sent two of his disciples ...	Mat 21:1-5 Mar 11:1-6 Luk 19:28-30
	IESOUS in Bethany; Dinner with Lazarus; First anointing with perfume.	Then, six days before [Greek: 'pro'] the Passover, IESOUS came to Bethany [here, 'six days' is a reference to the Passover Week which starts according to Leviticus 23:6 on Abib 15: "And on the fifteenth day of this month is the feast of Unleavened (bread)". This is affirmed by John himself in Joh 13:1 where he equates the day of the Passover dinner with the day before, 'before, before, before' (Greek: 'para', 'pro', 'pro') the Passover Week: "And before the feast of the Passover, IESOUS knowing that His hour hath come ... And supper being come, the devil already having put into the heart of Judas ..."] Then Mary took a pound of ointment of very valuable genuine nard and anointed the feet of IESOUS [...] "Leave her alone, so that she may keep it for the day of my preparation for burial ... "Speak to the Daughter of Zion: Behold, your King comes to you, meek and having mounted on a donkey and on a colt, offspring of an (animal) under yoke." [...] And the very great multitude spread their robes on the road, yet others were cutting branches from the trees and were spreading them on the road. And the multitudes, those going before Him and those following, were crying out, saying: "Hosanna to the SON of David! Praise has been the One coming in the name of KYRIOS! Hosanna in the highest!" Then He having entered into Jerusalem, all the city was stirred up, saying: "Who is This?" And the multitudes were saying: "'This is the prophet IESOUS, the One from Nazareth of Galilee." And many did spread their garments in the way, and others were cutting down branches from the trees, and were strewing in the way. And those going before and those following were crying out, saying, 'Hosanna! blessed [is] He who is coming in the name of KYRIOS; blessed is the coming reign, in the name of KYRIOS, of our father David; Hosanna in the highest.' On the next day [or 'morrow'; ...] when they heard that IESOUS was coming to Jerusalem, took the branches of palm trees and went out to meet Him, and began crying out, "Hosanna! 	Third Day Of The Week	Return to Jerusalem; Fig Tree, Partial Curse. The fig tree describes the state of religion the Jews and their teachers had at that time – showing a perfect façade (leaves = superficial and purely professed religiosity; see also allusion to palm tree branches where fruitless people hypocritically presented beautiful leaves), but not bearing a single fruit. After IESOUS would now rise 12 days later as the First Fruit. He would introduce a new era with much spiritual fruit to come – Christianity.	And on the morrow [after the brief Temple visit on Abib 10; therefore not on Abib 10 as often claimed], they having come forth from Bethany, He hungered, And having seen a fig–tree afar off having leaves, He went, if perhaps He will find anything in it. And having come to it, He found nothing except leaves, for it was not a time of figs. [...] And IESOUS answering said to it, "No more from thee – to the age – may anyone eat fruit." And His disciples were hearing it.
Return to Jerusalem; Cleansing of the Temple (courts).	Then IESOUS entered into the Temple, and He cast out all those selling and buying in the Temple. And He overturned the tables of the money changers, and the seats of those selling the doves. And He said to them: "It has been written: My House will be called a house of prayer. But you make it a cave of robbers." And they come to Jerusalem, and IESOUS having gone into the Temple, began to cast forth those selling and buying in the Temple, and the tables of the money-changers and the seats of those selling the doves, he overthrew ... And He entered into the Temple courts and began to drive out those who were selling ...	Mat 21:12-14 Mar 11:15-18 Luk 19:45-46
Miracles in the Temple.	Then came to Him blind and lame ones in the Temple, and He cured them. But the chief priests and the scribes having seen the wonderful things which He did, and the children crying out in the Temple and saying 'Hosanna to the Son of David', they were indignant.	Mat 21:14-15
IESOUS teaches in the Temple courts. The chief priests actively seek to destroy Him.	... and He was teaching, saying to them, "Hath it not been written – My house a house of prayer shall be called for all the nations, and you did make it a den of robbers?" And the scribes and the chief priests heard, and they were seeking how they shall destroy Him, for they were afraid of Him, because all the multitude was astonished at his teaching. [morning] And He was teaching every day in the Temple courts ... ("every day" implies a chain of at least 3 days; 2 days do not constitute "every day")	Mar 11:17-18 Luk 19:47

The Fig Tree Day 1: Partial Curse Day 2: Total Curse	Abib 10 (Brief Temple visit after triumphal entry into Jerusalem)	10-11 And He having entered into Jerusalem, all the city was stirred up, saying: "Who is This?" And the multitudes were saying: "'This is the prophet IESOUS, the One from Nazareth of Galilee." 11 And IESOUS entered into Jerusalem, and into the Temple, and having looked round on all things, it being now evening, He went forth to Bethany with the twelve.
	Abib 11 · 1st sighting of fig tree from afar off. · It was not yet the time. · Partial curse: This implies that no one may eat fruit from it. Most importantly, it does not yet say that the tree won't bear fruit anymore! It only states that no one will eat fruit anymore from it.	[Matthew does not include the first sighting of the fig tree; nor does any other Evangelium] 12 And on the morrow, they having come forth from Bethany, He hungered, and having seen a fig-tree afar off having leaves, He went, if perhaps He will find anything in it. And having come to it, He found nothing except leaves, for it was not a time of figs [this is absent from Matthew's account = another soft indicator that Matthew's account is later, although only by one day]. 14 And IESOUS answering said to it, "No more from thee – to the age – may anyone eat fruit." And His disciples were hearing it, [only] hearing it, no question nor astonishment at this point]
	Cleansing of the Temple.	12 Then IESOUS entered into the Temple, and He cast out all those selling and buying ... 17 ... He went out of the city to Bethany, and He lodged there. 15 And they came to Jerusalem, and IESOUS having gone into the Temple, began to cast out those selling and buying ...
	Abib 12 · 2nd sighting of now 'A Certain' fig tree – not anymore from far off. · Total curse: Not only implying that no one may eat fruit from it, but that the tree wouldn't even produce fruits at all! This intensification (being found in similar forms elsewhere in the Bible) is affirmed by the addition of 'beyond use'. · The fig tree is now totally withered up, after it had dried up from its roots upwards.	18 Now returning at daybreak into the city, He was hungry. 19 And having seen a certain fig tree, one and the same, a certain, see Strong's G3520 MIAN, miān) fig tree on the way, He went to it and found nothing on it, except leaves only. And He said to it: "No longer may there be fruit from you to the age." And the fig tree was dried up beyond use [which is commonly mistranslated with 'And the fig tree dried up immediately', based on a seldom error in the Strong's Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible. The word ΙΙΑΡΑΧΡΗΜΑ (parachrema, G3916) is composed of ΙΙΑΡΑ (para = beside/s), beyond, past, by ...) and ΧΡΗΜΑ (chrema = useful, of use, needed, needful ...) and consequently should be translated with 'beyond use, past usefulness, useless (short form)', or per extension 'by necessity, necessarily, as a result, in consequence, consequently, as required' (those 2 words are correctly rendered in Strong's, but strangely enough not the compound word). 20 And the disciples having seen it, they marveled, saying: "How was the fig tree dried up beyond use?" 21 And Peter having been reminded said to Him, "Rabbi, behold the fig-tree which you cursed has been dried up."
Fourth Day Of The Week	Return to Jerusalem; Fig Tree – total curse. Withered up beyond use. IESOUS teaches in the Temple. Questioning by religious leaders; Traps by Pharisees; Traps by Sadducees; Parables · Evil Farmers · Ten Virgins · Two Sons · Warnings · Wedding Dinner	Now returning at daybreak into the city, He was hungry. And having seen a certain fig tree on the way, He went to it and found nothing on it, except leaves only. And He said to it: "No longer may there be fruit from you to the age." And the fig tree was dried up beyond use. And the disciples having seen it, they marveled, saying: "How was the fig tree dried up beyond use?" And in the morning, passing by, they saw the fig–tree having been dried up [Perfect, Participle, Passive] from the roots, and Peter having remembered said to Him, "Rabbi, behold, the fig–tree which you cursed has been dried up." Then He having come to the Temple for teaching, the chief priests and the presbyters of the people came to Him, saying, "By what authority do you do this? And who gave you this authority?" And they come again to Jerusalem, and in the Temple, as He is walking, there came unto Him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders, and they say to Him, "By what authority dost thou these things? And who gave thee this authority that these things thou sayest do these things?" And it came to pass, on one of those days, as He is teaching the people in the Temple, and proclaiming the Evangelium, the chief priests ... came upon [Him], and spoke unto Him, saying, "Tell us by what authority thou dost these things? ... And they sought to lay hold on Him, but feared the people: for they knew that He had spoken the parole against them; and they left Him, and went their way. Then having departed, the Pharisees took counsel, how they might trap Him through a word. And they sent Him their disciples with the Herodians [...] On that day, Sadducees came to Him ... And His words unto him certain of the Pharisees and the Herodians, to catch Him in His words [...] Then came unto Him the Sadducees [...] The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel; The KYRIOS our THEOS is one KYRIOS: and thou shalt love the KYRIOS thy THEOS with all thy heart, and with all thy soul [...] And the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these ... And the scribes and the chief priests sought to lay their hands on Him at that same hour, and they were afraid of the people, for they knew that He had told this parable with reference to them. And they watched Him closely and sent spies who pretended they were upright, in order that they could catch Him in a statement, so that they could hand Him over to the authority and the jurisdiction of the governor. [the word 'jurisdiction' implies a legal process]	Mat 21:20-26 Mar 11:20-26 Mat 21:23ff Mar 11:27-28 Luk 20:1-26 Mar 12:12 Mat 22:15-23 Mar 12:13-34 Luk 20:19-20
The poor widow.	And IESOUS answering said, teaching in the Temple, "How say the scribes that the CHRISTOS is son of David? [...] And the great multitude were hearing Him gladly, and He was saying to them in His teaching, "Beware of the scribes, who will in long robes, and love salutations in the market-places, and first seats in the synagogues, and first couches in suppers, who are devouring the widows' houses, and for a pretence are making long prayers; these shall receive more abundant judgment." And IESOUS having sat down over-against the treasury, was beholding how the multitude do put brass into the treasury, and many rich were putting in much, and having come, a poor widow did put in two mites, which are a farthing. And having called near His disciples, He saith to them, "Verily I say to you, that this poor widow hath put in more than all those putting into the treasury for all, out of their abundance, put in, but she, out of her want, all that she had put in – all her living." And having looked up, He saw those who did cast their gifts to the treasury – rich men, and He saw also a certain poor widow casting there two mites ...	Mar 12:35-44 Luk 21:4
Teaching to His Disciples on the (Times to the) Mount of Olives. · End Times · Second Coming · Ten Virgins · Loaned Money · Anointment of His Death	Then having stepped out from the Temple, IESOUS was going forth. And the disciples approached Him, to show Him the buildings of the Temple. And answering, He spoke to them: "Do you not see all these? Truly I tell you: Here may certainly not be left a stone upon stone, which will not be ablated." Now He was sitting on the Mount of Olives. The disciples approached Him in private, saying: "Speak to us, when will this be, and what is the sign of Your Coming and of the consummation of the age?" And as He is going forth out of the Temple, one of His disciples saith to Him, "Teacher, see! what stones! and what buildings! and the IESOUS answering said to him, "Seest thou these great buildings? there may not be left a stone upon a stone, that may not be thrown down." And as He is sitting at the mount of the Olives, over-against the Temple, Peter, and "Tell us when these things shall be? there shall not be left a stone upon a stone [...] you may hear of wars and uprisings, be not terrified, for it behoveth these things to happen first, but the end (is) not immediately." Then said he to them, "Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, great shakings also in every place, and famines, and pestilences, there shall be; fearful things also, and great signs from heaven there shall be. [...] Jerusalem shall be trodden down by nations, till the times of nations be fulfilled. And there shall be signs in the sun, and moon, and stars [...] And then they shall see the SON of Man, coming in a cloud, with power and much glory [...] And He spake a simile to them: 'See the fig–tree ... And it followed when IESOUS consummated all these sayings, He spoke to His disciples: "You have known that after two days the Pascha is coming, [here Matthew (and below Mark) use the same word 'after' (Greek 'meta') and count towards the evening of the Passover meal on Abib 14, while John counts in Joh 12:1 and Joh 13:1 towards Abib 15 while using the word 'before' (Greek 'pro'), and the Son of man is delivered up, so to be crucified."	Mat 26:1-2
Religious leaders plot to kill IESOUS. (House of Caiaphas)	Then were gathered the chief priests, and the presbyters of the people, in the auditorium of the chief priest, of the one being called Caiaphas. And they resolved together in order that they might seize IESOUS in deceit, and might kill Him. But they were saying: "Not during the Feast, so that there may not be a turmoil among the people." [= not necessarily a fact as often wrongly assumed; their intention could have been pointless; if put into practise it implies that IESOUS could not have been killed during the Sabbaths on Abib 15 / 21, 22, and He was not killed on or before the 14th, when He still ate the lamb in the evening, but rather toward the end of the feast] And the Passover and the Unleavened Bread were after that word [Greek: Strong's G3921] two days, and the chief priests and the scribes were seeking how, by guile, having taken hold of Him, they might kill Him; and they said, "Not in the feast, lest there shall be a tumult of the people." And when it was day, the Jews made a conspiracy and bound themselves under a curse, saying they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Paul.	Mat 26:3-5 Mar 15:1-2 Act 23:12

	Teaching in the Temple.	[early morning] And He was during the days in the Temple teaching, and during the nights, going forth, He was lodging at the mount called of Olives [in Bethany], and all the people were coming early unto Him in the Temple to hear Him.	Luk 21:37-38
	The chief priests are still desperate ...	And the feast of the unleavened (food) was coming near [= the day before, verse 7 continues with "and the day of the unleavened (food) came ..."], that is called Passover, and the chief priests and the scribes were seeking how they may take him up, for they were afraid of the people. 	Second & final anointing of IESOUS (also Bethany, in the House of Simon).	Now IESOUS having been in a house in Bethany, of Simon the leper, a woman approached Him having a very precious alabaster perfume. And she poured it out upon His head as He was dining. [...] "What troubles do you bring against the poor woman? For she committed a better work for me. For you have always the poor with yourselves, but me you have not always. For her having applied this perfume upon my body, she committed toward my burial. And He, being in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, at His reclining (at meat), there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment, of spikenard, very precious, and having broken the alabaster box, did pour on His head [...] she anticipated to anoint my body for the embalming ... 	Judas agrees to betray IESOUS.	And the Adversary entered into Judas [immediately after protesting against the "waste"-of the ointment], who is surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve, and he, having gone away, spake with the chief priests and the magistrates, how he might deliver Him up to them, and they rejoiced, and covenanted to give Him money, and He agreed, and was seeking a favourable season to deliver Him up to them without tumult. Then one of the twelve, who was called Judas Iscariot, was walking to the chief priests. He said: "What are you willing to give to me, and I will deliver Him to you?" Now they set forth to him thirty silverlings. And from then on he was seeking a good moment so that he might deliver Him. And Judas the Iscariot, one of the twelve, went away unto the chief priests that he might deliver Him up to them, and having heard, they were glad, and promised to give him money, and he was seeking how, conveniently, he might deliver Him up. 	Event	Scripture
Abib 14 (Sixth Day Of The Week)	Day of Preparation. (For the Sabbath of Sabbaths)	14 In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at the evening [the precise rendition of 'ANA MECON TON ECHIEPINON' = 'midway between the eventides' (plural eventides = evening times) thus meaning the period of 'twilight' as correctly used in several translations] is the Passover of KYRIOS. 14 ... observe the Passover at its appointed time. On the fourteenth day of this month at twilight [precisely 'ΤΙΠΟC ECHIEPAN' = 'towards evening'] you will perform it at its appointed time according to all its decrees; and according to all its stipulations you will observe it." So Moses spoke to the Israelites to observe the Passover. And they observed the Passover on the fourteenth day of the month in the desert of Sinai. According to all that KYRIOS commanded Moses, thus the Israelites did. 14 And the children of Israel kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the month at evening , to the westward of Jericho on the opposite side of the Jordan in the plain. And they ate of the grain of the earth unleavened and new corn. In this day the manna failed ... 14 Then they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the second month ; and the priests and the Levites repented, and purified themselves, and brought whole-burnt-offerings into the house of KYRIOS. 14 In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month , you shall have the Passover, a feast lasting for seven days , when you shall eat unleavened breads. 	Passover Lamb. (To be killed at sunset and eaten entirely before the next morning)	14 [evening] "You will keep it [the lamb] until the fourteenth day of this month , and ... will slaughter it at twilight . [...] And they will eat the meat on this night; they will eat it fire-roasted and with unleavened bread [...]. And you must not leave any of it until morning [...] It is KYRIOS' Passover ..." 14 [evening] "And you will keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread [...] On the first day , on the fourteenth day of the month , in the evening, you will eat unleavened bread until the evening of the twenty-first day of the month . For seven days yeast must not be found in your houses ... - [Example of other sacrifices to be eaten the same evening:] And the meat of the sacrifice of his thanksgiving fellowship offerings must be eaten on the day of his offering; he must not leave it until morning . 14 [evening until morning] And Josias kept a Passover to KYRIOS his THEOS; and sacrificed the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month . [...] And thus they did till the morning. And they roasted the Passover with fire according to the ordinance; and boiled the holy pieces in copper vessels and caldrons, and the feast went on well , and they quickly served all the children of the people. And after they had prepared for themselves and for the priests, for the priests were engaged in offering the whole-burnt-offerings and the fat until night ... (IESOUS is the only way - The Vine and the Branches - Announcement of the HOLY SPIRIT - Warnings - Prayer for Himself, His Disciples and for future believers)	Now [other translations: "just before" / in the hours] before the feast of Pass-over , IESOUS, knowing that His hour had come [...] And as dinner was taking place [clear indication that the dinner of the same day is meant], when the devil had already put [previously; the day before] into the heart of Judas son of Simon Iscariot that he should betray Him ... Now evening having come , He cometh with the twelve, and as they were eating, He spoke: "Truly I tell you, that one of you will deliver me. [...] 3]Then IESOUS told them: "All you will be shaken in me within this night ... And evening having come , He cometh with the twelve, and as they are reclining, and eating, IESOUS said [...] woe to that man through whom the SON of Man is delivered up; good were it to him if that man had not been born. [...] And having taken the cup, having given thanks, He gave to them, and they drank of it - all; and He said to them, "This is my blood of the new covenant, which for many is being poured out; verily I say to you, that no more may I drink of the produce of the vine till that day when I may drink it new in the reign of THEOS." ... one of you will betray me. [...] Then after dipping the piece of bread, He gave it to Judas son of Simon Iscariot. And after the piece of bread, then Satan entered into him [2nd time ...] So after he had taken the piece of bread, he went out immediately. And it was night. And He said, "I tell you, Peter, the rooster will not crow today ["on the day" or "this day"] until you have denied three times that you know me!" And having hymned, they went out at the Mount of Olives . Then IESOUS told them: "All you will be shaken in me within this night ... 		Arrest	And while He was still speaking, behold, Judas, one of the twelve, came and with him a great multitude, with swords and sticks, from the chief priests and presbyters of the people. And immediately - while he is yet speaking - came near Judas and IESOUS said to him, 'Judas, with a kiss the SON of Man dost thou deliver up?' ... 	IESOUS Taken to High Priest Caiaphas. (2nd trial)	[before sunrise] Then Annas sent Him, tied up, to Caiaphas the high priest. 63But IESOUS kept silent. And the chief priest said to Him: "I adjure you by the Living Theos, that you may say to us if you are the CHRISTOS, the Son of THEOS." IESOUS demonstrated to him: "You have said. Moreover I tell you, from now on you will see the SON of Man sitting on the right hand of the power, and coming on the clouds of heaven." Then the chief priest tore his vestures, uttering: "He blasphemed! What other need do we have of witnesses? [...] "He is guilty of death!" Then they spat in His face, and fisted Him. 		IESOUS before the Sanhedrin; High Council. (3rd trial)	[after sunrise] Now morning having come , all the chief priests and the presbyters of the people took counsel against IESOUS, so as to put Him to death. And having bound Him, they led away and delivered Him to Pilate the governor. [after sunrise] ... when day came , the council of elders of the people gathered, both chief priests and scribes, and they led Him away to their Sanhedrin ... [after sunrise] And as soon as morning came, after formulating a plan, the chief priests, with the elders and scribes and the whole Sanhedrin, tied up IESOUS, led Him away, and handed Him over to Pilate.	Mat 27:1-2 Luk 22:66-71 Mar 15:1
IESOUS taken to Pilate, Probably a brief alsover. (This handover could have occurred on the morning of Abib 16, because Abib 15 is equated with the idolatrous day of 'Ides' on March 15th in the originally Roman lunar Calendar, when political and judicial activities were prohibited (Nefasti Publici)		[later that day] Then they brought IESOUS from Caiaphas to the governor's residence. Now it was early [now the Weekly Sabbath had also started, meaning that the Jews possibly violated the Sabbath if trials were disallowed], and they did not enter into the governor's residence so that they would not be defiled, but could eat the Passover [this cannot refer anymore to the Passover Lamb, but to eating the unleavened bread and fire offerings on all the 7 days of Pass-over; possible "defilement" also because of the Sabbath that had started / was about to start with the sunrise].	Joh 18:28
Judas hangs himself on the Sabbath. (It is unknown when his killing tool (rope?) broke and if his intestines spilled out instantly or only after some days)		Then Judas, the one delivering Him, saw that He was condemned [by the High Council]. Having regretted, he returned the thirty silverlings to the chief priests and presbyters, uttering: "I have sinned, having subjected innocent blood." But they answered: "What is it to us? You will see to it." And having cast the silverlings into the Inner Temple, he departed. And having gone away, he strangled himself off. Now this man acquired a field for the wages of his wickedness [meaning that the leading priests purchased the field with the returned blood money], and falling headlong, he burst open in the middle and all his intestines spilled out. 	Judas - the potter's field.	Yet having taken counsel, they bought with them the field of the potter, as burial to strangers. [this happened after the Sabbath and probably before IESOUS' trial before Pilate]...	Mat 27:7
Abib 17	Second Day Of The Week
	Pilate (4th trial)	Then Pilate entered again into the governor's residence and summoned IESOUS. [...] "entered again" implies that some hours or days had passed in between ... And they received the thirty silverlings, the money of the one having been valued, whom they valued from Israel's sons; and gave them for the field of the potter, as KYRIOS appointed to me. [break of 1 hour] [other translations "so", meaning a conceptual and therefore timely leap; any time could have passed; a 'now / so' does rather not mean just a few hours later] IESOUS was brought before the governor. [a governor is usually not a person who is spontaneously available between 5 -7 am in the morning, especially considering the fact that he was a Roman and did not owe any favours to the Jews] And the governor questioned Him, saying: "Are you the King of the Jews?" Now IESOUS was affirming: "You say it."	Joh 18:33 Mat 27:9-11
Abib 18	Third Day Of The Week
	Herod (5th trial)	[the books of Matthew, Mark and John skip the trial before Herod entirely] ... when he found out that He was from the jurisdiction of Herod, he sent Him over to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem in those days. [...] So he questioned Him at considerable length [contradicts also a fast-track trial], but he answered nothing to him. [...] And Herod with his soldiers also treated Him with contempt, and after mocking Him and dressing Him in glistening clothing [implies a significant period of time], he sent Him back to Pilate ...	Luk 23:6-12
Abib 19	Fourth Day Of The Week
	Pilate (6th trial)	So Pilate called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people ... [implies that they were not present and had to be called in; again indicating a trial longer than just a few hours] Now at a feast [clear indication that IESOUS did not die before or on the first day (Sabbath) of Passover, but during the Passover week = at a feast] the governor had been accustomed to release to the multitude one prisoner, [it is improbable that such a crowd had spontaneously formed just hours after IESOUS was still being praised by the people, even if people did not really believe, but rather admired His miracles] ... "Whom do you wish I may release to you, (Iesus the) 'son of the father' [untranslated 'Barabbas'], or IESOUS the one being called 'CHRISTOS'? [...] Now sitting on his tribune, his wife sent to him, saying: "Have no part you and this righteous One. For much I have suffered in my dreams because of Him." [such indication that IESOUS was not dead yet, when the week already went around of the resurrection, because the resurrection came and failed, and finally the same resurrection came ... But they said: "The 'son of the father'." Pilate called to them: "What then will I do to IESOUS, the one being called CHRISTOS?" Everyone called: "To be crucified!" [...] "His blood upon us, and upon our children." [this clearly indicates the seriousness of that crowd and contradicts assumptions that those were random visitors] Then he released to them the 'son of the father'. But having flogged IESOUS, he delivered Him so that He might be crucified. [one night had legally passed after a death sentence]	Luk 23:1-16 Mat 27:15-26
	Torture; Headquarters Of The Roman Soldiers.	Then the soldiers of the governor having taken IESOUS to the praetorium, they gathered the entire unit unto Him [or regiment; this requires a place, another secondary proof against a possible fast-track trial]. And having undressed Him, they placed a crimson cloak around Him. And having twined a wreath [...] And they led Him away in order to crucify.	Mat 27:27-31
	Abib 20 (Fifth Day Of The Week)	Day of Preparation (For the Sabbath of Sabbaths)	... Now it was the Day of Preparation of the Passover ; it was about the sixth hour [most certainly not noon according to Jewish time, but either 9am because some manuscripts (D Bezae 05, L Regius 19, A Sangallensis 48, Ψ Athous Laurenstis 44), extra-biblical sources (Chron. Alex.) and historians (Ammonius of Alexandria 3c. AD, Nonnus 5c. AD, Severus of Antioch 6c. AD, and Theophylact 11c. AD) state "third instead of sixth" (hour); or 6am because John used the Macedonian method / Roman time starting at midnight] And he [Pilate] said to the Jews, "Behold your king!"  Joh 19:14. Not EKTH, ekte: sixth, but ΤΡΙΤΗ, trite: third. In context about third (hour). 1. The verse indicates that IESOUS was led to His crucifixion before noon (it is secondary if now 6am, 9am or noon). 2. It therefore speaks of a Day of Preparation that is clearly different from the first Day of Preparation (Abib 14th, when IESOUS ate the Passover Lamb only in the evening; see Mat 26:19-20 "...they prepared the Passover. And when it was evening, he was reclining at table with the twelve disciples.") 3. This unequivocally proves that IESOUS was led to the cross on the second Day of Preparation, which took place 6 days after the first Day of Preparation.	Joh 19:14 Codex Sangallensis 48 Overview of commentaries on John 19:14
IESOUS is led to the cross.		[~7:00 am] And going out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name. This one they charged, that he might take up the cross of Him. And having come to a place called Golgotha, which is being called 'Place of Skull', they gave Him wine to drink, having been mixed with gall. And having tasted, He was not willing to drink. For the bodies of those animals whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sins are burned up outside the camp. Therefore IESOUS [the ultimate High Priest] also suffered outside the gate, in order that he might sanctify the people by his own blood.	Mat 27:32-34 Heb 13:11-13
IESOUS is placed on the cross.		[~8:00 am] Now having crucified Him, they divided His clothing, casting a lot. And sitting down, they were watching Him there. And they placed above His head the accusation, that having been written: "This is IESOUS, the King of the Jews!" Then were crucified together with Him two robbers, one on the right, and one on the left [the crucifixion of 2 additional people required once again additional time for the respective coordination and preparation] ...	Mat 27:35-38
Crucifixion.		[8-9 am] Now it was the third hour [day counted from 6am] when they crucified Him. [11am-12 pm] Now from (the) sixth hour [noon], there came darkness upon all the land, until (the) ninth hour [3pm].	Mar 15:25 Mat 27:45
His Death. (The resurrection of the dead is possibly a fulfillment of the prophecy of the dry bones of Ezekiel)		[2-3pm] And close to the ninth hour , IESOUS shouted in a great voice, saying: "Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?" ... But IESOUS having cried out again in a great voice, let go the spirit. And behold, the curtain of the Inner Temple was divided in two, from top to bottom. And the earth was shaken, and the rocks were split. And the tombs were opened, and many bodies of the holy ones having been laid to rest, were raised. [break of 2 days] Then having come out of the tombs after His resurrection, they entered into the holy city and were manifested to many. [which can only mean that they were made alive in the moments after He died, but remained in their graves for ~3 days]. [...] "Truly, this one was Son of THEOS." ... all the crowds that had come together for this spectacle, when they saw the things that had happened, returned home beating their breasts.	Mat 27:46 Mat 27:50-56 Luk 23:47-48
Their requirement to take His body down,		And if a man commits a sin punishable by death, and so he is put to death and you hang him on a tree, his body shall not remain all night on the tree, but you shall bury him the same day, for a hanged man is cursed by THEOS. And he hanged the king of Gai on a gallows; and he remained on the tree till evening; and when the sun went down, Joshua gave charge, and they took down his body from the tree they were hanging on the trees until the evening. And it happened at the time of sunset [...] they took them down from the trees ... The Jews, therefore, that the bodies might not remain on the cross on the Sabbath, since [even the Pharisees, for the Sabbath day was a special one.] [not a normal Sabbath, but an important = Sabbath of Sabbaths] asked of Pilate that their legs may be broken, and they taken away."	Deu 21:22-23 Jos 8:29 Jos 10:26-27 Joh 19:31
His burial.		[~6pm, tomb] Now evening having come, came a rich man from Arimathea of the name of Joseph, he himself who also became disciple to IESOUS. [~6pm, 9am] And when it was already evening [assuming 6pm following the rhythm of 6am cross, 12m darkness and 3pm death], since it was the Day of Preparation (that is, the day before the Sabbath), Joseph ... went in to Pilate and asked for the body of IESOUS. So there, on account of the (Day of) Preparation of the Jews, because the tomb was close by, they buried IESOUS.	Mat 27:57 Mar 15:42-43 Joh 19:42
Start of the Sabbath of Sabbaths in the evening.		[21st; start on the evening of Abib 20] on the seventh day [since the start of Passover] there shall be a holy assembly; you shall not do any regular work." (sunset-sunset rhythm contrary to sunrise-sunrise rhythm of Weekly Sabbaths)	Lev 23:6-8
Abib 21 (1st Day After Crucifixion) End of Passover		Sabbath of Sabbaths.	... unleavened bread must be eaten for seven days. [...] On the seventh day you will have a Holy Convocation; you will not do any regular work.	Num 28:16-25
		Guards are posted at the tomb.	But on the next day, which is after the Preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees were gathered before Pilate, telling: "Master, we were reminded that this one, the liar, said while still living: 'After three days I will be raised.' Order therefore the tomb to be secured until the third day ..."	Mat 27:62-65
		End of Passover with the evening.	... you will eat unleavened bread until the evening of the twenty-first day of the month . For seven days yeast must not be found in your houses ...	Exo 12:17-20
	Women purchase the burial spices. (In modern Israel, shops still reopen for business in the evening following a Sabbath of Sabbaths - usually starting at 8 PM, until midnight)	And when the [Extraordinary] Sabbath was over [in the evening when markets opened for a few hours; the Weekly Sabbath would only start the next morning], Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome purchased fragrant spices so that they could go and anoint Him. And they returned [on the day before] and prepared fragrant spices and perfumes, and on the [Weekly] Sabbath they rested according to the commandment.	Mar 16:1 Luk 23:55-56

Abib 22 (2nd Day After Crucifixion)	Weekly Sabbath (Sunrise-sunrise)
	IESOUS in the Tomb.	And they returned [Abib 20, evening] and prepared fragrant spices and perfumes [Abib 21, evening], and on the [Weekly] Sabbath [Abib 22] they rested according to the commandment . Now on the first day of the week [Abib 23] ... they came back to the tomb bringing the fragrant spices which they had prepared. Luk 23:55-56
	This day was the second day CHRISTOS remained in the tomb. CHRISTOS did not leave the tomb until the sunrise of the third day, but His body was probably restored and revived on the second day, precisely as foretold through the prophet Hosea. Albert Barnes' Commentary on the whole Bible best describes the significance and application of this prophecy:	Come, let us return to KYRIOS; because it is He who has torn, and He will heal us; he has struck us down and will bind us up. He will revive us after two days; on the third day He will raise us up, that we may live in His presence. Let us know, let us press on to know KYRIOS; His rising is sure like the dawn. He will come like the showers to us, like the spring rain that waters the earth. [indication that IESOUS was physically alive after 2 days; similar to Mat 27:51-53 where saints were raised, but did not yet come out of their tombs] Hos 6:1-3 After two days will He revive us (or quicken us, give us life,) in the third day He will raise us up – The Resurrection of CHRIST, and our resurrection in Him and in His Resurrection, could not be more plainly foretold. The prophet expressly mentions "two days," after which life should be given, and a "third day, on" which the resurrection should take place. What else can this be than the two days in which the Body of CHRIST lay in the tomb, and the third day, on which He rose again, as "the Resurrection and the life" [...] The Apostle, in speaking of our resurrection in CHRIST, uses these self-same words of the prophet; "THEOS, who is rich in mercy, for His great love wherewith He loved us – hath quickened us together with CHRIST, and hath raised us up and made us to sit together in heavenly places in CHRIST JESUS" Eph 2:4-6. The Apostle, like the prophet, speaks of that which took place in CHRIST our Head, as having already taken place in us, His members. : "If we unhesitatingly believe in our heart," says a father, "what we profess with our mouth, we were crucified in CHRIST, "we" died, "we" were buried, "we" also were raised again on that very third day. [...] They could not understand "then," how He would do this. The "after two days" and, "in the third day," remained a mystery, to be explained by the event. [...] The "two days" and "the third day" have nothing in history to correspond with them, except that in which they were fulfilled, when CHRIST, "rising on the third day from the grave, raised with Him the whole human race". Albert Barnes' Notes
Abib 23 (3rd Day After Crucifixion)	First Day Of The Week (Starts with sunrise)	(often wrongly associated with the extra-biblical 'Lord's Day on Sunday – wrongly because the Bible clearly states that the "Sabbath" preceded the "First Day of the Week" and that IESOUS rose precisely at the dawn of the First Day towards / following the Sabbath) Sabbaton, plural form, related to week
	Wave Sheaf / First Fruits Offering.	And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the Feast of Unleavened Bread to KYRIOS; seven days you shall eat unleavened things. [...] And you shall eat no bread or parched fresh kernels until [until= indicating a previous partial fasting] this very day, until you yourselves offer the gifts to your THEOS [...] And from the day after the Sabbaths [plural], from the day on which you bring the sheaf of the addition, you shall count off seven whole weeks. Lev 23:6-15
	(The date of the Feast must be the day after the Sabbaths)	Six days you shall eat Unleavened Bread, and on the seventh day there shall be an assembly for KYRIOS your THEOS; you shall not do work. "You shall count off seven weeks for you; from the time you begin to harvest the standing grain ... Deu 16:8-12
	Resurrection!	... to be killed, and after three days to rise. Mar 8:31 Now on the first day of the week [literal: the first day to or towards the Sabbath], at very early dawn, they came back to the tomb bringing the fragrant spices which they had prepared. And they found the stone had been rolled away from the tomb [...] this is the third day since these things took place [Crucifixion = Abib 20; 1st day since = Abib 21; 3rd day since = Abib 23]. Luk 24:1-21 ... that He was buried, and that He was raised up on the third day [He rose on the very early morning of the third day – right before the two Mary's came to the grave- and not the day before on the Sabbath] ... 1Cor 15:4 ... the SPIRIT of the one who raised IESOUS from the dead lives in you ... Rom 8:11
	IESOUS is the First Fruit, risen on the day of the Wave Sheaf Offering.	Not only this, but we ourselves also, having the first fruits of the SPIRIT, even we ourselves groan within ourselves while we await eagerly our adoption, the redemption of our body. Rom 8:23 But now CHRISTOS has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep. 1Cor 15:20 But we ought to give thanks to THEOS always concerning you, brothers dearly loved by KYRIOS, because THEOS has chosen you as first fruits for salvation by the sanctification of the SPIRIT and faith in the truth ... 2The 2:13
	Resurrection not within 3 days, but 3 days after the day of crucifixion.	... 'After three days I will be raised'. Order therefore the tomb to be secured until the third day ... Mat 27:62-65 For just as Jonah was in the hollow of the huge fish three days and three nights, so will be the SON of man in the heart of the earth three days and three nights. [IESOUS did not remain in the tomb for 2, but for 3 nights!] Mat 12:40
	Encounter Of 3 Women - With 2 Individual Angels
	1. Mary Magdalene, Mary (Mother of James / other Mary) and Salome are on their way to the tomb.	[-5:45am] Now at the close of Sabbaths, [when the week came to a close], unto the dawning [the first hour of the new day was from 6-7am] into (the) first of Sabbaths [greek "eis mian sabbaton"; 1st day of the week following the 7th day of the week], came Mary the Magdalene and the other Mary, to behold the tomb. Mat 28:1
	2. From a distance, they see an Angel coming down from Heaven. The Roman guards are witnesses.	And behold, a great shaking happened, for an Angel of KYRIOS having descended from Heaven and having approached, rolled away the stone and was sitting on it. It was after the Weekly Sabbath when the angels rolled the stone away = empty tomb on the First Day of the Week]. Mat 28:2-4 And His aspect was like lightning and His apparel white as snow [this usually points to IESOUS Himself]. And out of fear of Him, those watching were shaken, and became as dead.
	3. The women stand at the foot of the hill and see that the stone is rolled away.	And when they looked up [the hill], they saw that the stone had been rolled away (for it was very large). [= they saw it from far because it was large] Mar 16:4
4. The women walk into the tomb and see an Angel.	And as they were going into the tomb, they saw a young man dressed in a white robe sitting on the right side, and they were alarmed. But he said to them, "Do not be alarmed. You are looking for IESOUS the Nazarene who was crucified. He has been raised, He is not here! See the place where they laid Him! But go, tell His disciples and Peter that He is going ahead of you to Galilee. Mar 16:5-7
Encounter Of Many Women & The Disciples - With IESOUS CHRISTOS and 2 Angels
5. More of the 'many women from Galilee' (Mat 27:55) arrive at the scene (possibly Joanna, Mary, others).	And they found the stone had been rolled away from the tomb, but when they went in, they did not find the body. And it happened that while they were perplexed about this, behold, two men in gleaming clothing stood near them. And as they were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, they said to them, "Why are you looking for the living among the dead? [...] they returned from the tomb, they reported all these things to the eleven and to all the rest. Luk 24:2-10 Now ["now" implies a break and a different scene; the second group of women possibly arrived shortly after the first group to the location of the disciples] Mary Magdalene and Joanna and Mary the mother of James and the others with them were telling these things to the apostles.
6. John and Simon Peter are called by some of the women and find the empty tomb.	So she ran [...] "They have taken away KYRIOS from the tomb and we do not know where they have put him!" Then Peter and the other disciple went out and were going to the tomb [...] Then the disciples went away again to their own homes. But Mary stood outside at the tomb, weeping. Joh 20:2-11
7. Mary stays, encounters the Angels and IESOUS.	... Then, while she was weeping, she bent over to look into the tomb, and she saw two angels in white, seated one at the head and one at the feet where the body of IESOUS had been lying. [...] she turned around and saw IESOUS standing there [...] She thought that It was the gardener [...] IESOUS said to her, "Mary." [...] "Rabboni" ... Joh 20:11-18
The Jewish leaders fabricate a legend.	And having been gathered with the presbyters, and also having taken counsel, they gave night, silverlings to the soldiers, saying: "Say that his disciples have by the governor, we will persuade him, and will make you insouciant." And they having received the silverlings, did as they were instructed. So this word was divulged among Jews until today. Mat 28:13
First appearances.	... And behold, on that same day, two of them were traveling to a village named Emmaus [...] IESOUS Himself also approached [...] "Were not our hearts burning within us while He was speaking with us on the road [...] And they got up that same hour and returned to Jerusalem and found the eleven ... Luk 24:13-34 ... everything that is written about me in the law of Moses and the prophets and psalms must be fulfilled." [...] "Thus it is written that the CHRISTOS would suffer and would rise from the dead on the third day, and repentance and the forgiveness of sins would be proclaimed in His name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. Luk 24:44-47
IESOUS appears to the 10 disciples; 1st time; excluding Thomas.	Now when it was evening on that day – the first day of the week – and the doors had been shut where the disciples were because of fear of the Jews, IESOUS came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace to you." [...] He breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the HOLY SPIRIT. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them. If you retain the sins of any, they are retained." Joh 20:19-23
Giving of the HOLY SPIRIT, 40 days before Pentecost!
Abib 30	First Day Of The Week
	IESOUS appears to the 11 disciples; 2nd time; including Thomas.	... And after eight days His disciples were again inside, and Thomas with them. Although the doors had been shut, IESOUS came and stood in their midst and said, "Peace to you." Then he said to Thomas, "Place your finger here and see my hands, and place your hand and put it into my side. And do not be unbelieving, but believing!" ... Joh 20:24-29
Abib 23 – Sivan 2	40 days until Sivan 2
	IESOUS appears to the 11 disciples; 3rd time.	After these things IESOUS revealed Himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias [...] This was now the third time IESOUS was revealed to the disciples after He had been raised from the dead. Joh 21
	Further appearances.	... to whom He also presented Himself alive after He suffered, with many convincing proofs, appearing to them over a period of forty days and speaking the things about the Kingdom of THEOS. Act 1:3 ... then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at once [most probably the announced appearance in Galilee], the majority of whom remain until now, but some have fallen asleep. 1Cor 15:6
	The Great Commission.	Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mount which IESOUS appointed to them. And having seen Him, they did obeisance, but hesitated. And IESOUS having approached, He spoke to them, saying: Mat 28:16-20 "All authority in Heaven and on earth has been given to me. Having then gone forth, disciple all the nations, baptizing them into the name of the FATHER, and of the SON, and of the HOLY SPIRIT, instructing them to keep everything what I commanded to you! And behold, I am with you all the days, until the consummation of the age."
Sivan 2 (40th Day Counting From Resurrection)	Fifth Day Of The Week
	Ascension of IESOUS to the spiritual Heaven(s).	And after He had said these things, while they were watching, He was taken up, and a cloud received Him from their sight. [...] This IESOUS who was taken up from you into heaven like this will come back in the same way you saw Him departing into Heaven!" Act 1:9-11
Sivan 4 (Possibly The First Weekly Sabbath After The Ascension)	Weekly Sabbath
	Gathering of the disciples with 120 believers.	All these were busily engaged with one mind in prayer, together with the women and Mary the mother of IESOUS and with His brothers. Act 1:14-17 [unclear time lapse, but probably the first Weekly Sabbath after Sivan 2] And in those days [= shortly after Sivan 2, probably excluding Sivan 11] Peter stood up in the midst of the brothers (and it was a crowd of persons of about one hundred twenty at the same place) and said, "Men and brothers, it was necessary that the Scripture be fulfilled, which the HOLY SPIRIT proclaimed beforehand through the mouth of David ...
	Matthias is added as the 12th apostle.	And they cast lots for them, and the lot fell on Matthias, and he was added to serve with the eleven apostles. Act 1:26
Sivan 12 (10 Days After Ascension)	First Day Of The Week; Day of Pentecost.	The Day of Pentecost takes place on a First Day of The Week – the day after the Weekly Sabbath.
	Pentecost simply means '50'.	And from the day after the Sabbaths, from the day on which you bring the sheaf of the addition, you shall count off seven whole weeks. You shall count until the day after the last week, fifty days, and you shall present a new sacrifice to KYRIOS. Lev 23:15-16
	The HOLY SPIRIT manifests.	And when the fiftieth day (Pentecost) came, they were all together in the same place. And suddenly there came from Heaven a sound like a mighty rushing wind [...] And they were all filled with the HOLY SPIRIT and began to speak in other tongues [...] So those who accepted his message were baptized, and on that day about three thousand souls were added. Act 2:1-41
Epilogue	Many of us doubted the chronology of the biblical narrative of the death and resurrection of CHRISTOS IESOUS. We found supposing discrepancies such as the women purchasing burial spices between the Sabbaths, and have heard and followed many other discussions. While this study cannot answer all questions, we have now seen clarification on many levels and on –all– essential aspects. We who doubted have to ask for forgiveness. There is no weak chain in the Bible. Let it be a lesson for us to believe not only a part, but the Bible in its entirety. Do not lean on your own understanding, but simply have faith in His Word – even if you sometimes do not (yet) fully understand it.

Day No.	Symbolism	Scripture
---------	-----------	-----------

-6-	The number 6 symbolizes man, created on the sixth day. It also stands for human weakness, the evils of satan, the manifestation of sin and even for exactly 6 earthquakes mentioned in the Bible. It is only consistent that IESOUS therefore was killed by man (who was created on day 6) while suffering for 6 hours on the precise day symbolizing evil, accompanied by an earthquake. Symbolism cannot become any more impressive than this.
	6 days of creation.	So THEOS created humankind in his image [...] there was evening, and there was morning, a sixth day. Gen 1:27-31
	Three 6's is the number and mark of the beast.	... calculate the number of the beast, for it is man's number, and his number is six hundred sixty-six. Rev 13:18
	The darkness initiated in the sixth hour.	Now from (the) sixth hour [noon], there came darkness upon all the land, until (the) ninth hour [3pm]. And close to the ninth hour, IESOUS shouted in a great voice, saying: "Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?" ... Mat 27:45 Mat 27:46
	IESOUS suffered 6 long hours on the cross.	Now it was the third hour when they crucified Him. And close to the ninth hour, IESOUS shouted in a great voice, saying: "Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?" ... Mar 15:25 Mat 27:46

6+1 Pattern	Significant events in Bible history repeatedly show the 6+1 pattern. It can therefore hardly be a coincidence that precisely 6 days passed from the first day of Unleavened Bread (Abib 15) until the day of crucifixion (Abib 20) and that the seventh day equals the first full day of IESOUS resting in the tomb (Abib 21). This means 6 days of suffering for IESOUS CHRISTOS (analogous to the 6-day-labor we ought to do every week) and the seventh day of total rest for Him!
	1. The Creation Week (6 work days + 1 rest day).	And THEOS blessed the seventh day, and He sanctified it, because on it He rested from all His work ... Gen 2:3
	2. The Calendar Week (6 work days + 1 rest day)	'For six days work is to be done, and on the seventh day shall be a Sabbath of complete rest ... Lev 23:3
	3. Manna Provision (6 days of Manna + 1 day of leftovers)	And it came to pass on the sixth day, they gathered double what was needed, two homers for one man [...] Six days ye shall gather it, and on the seventh day is a Sabbath, for there shall be none on that day ... Exo 16:22-30
	4. Mount Sinai (6 days of waiting + 1 day of THEOS' glory)	... And the glory of THEOS came down upon the mount Sina, and the cloud covered it six days; and KYRIOS called Moses on the seventh day out of the midst of the cloud. Exo 24:16
	5. The Battle of Jericho (6 marching days + 1 day of victory)	You will march around the city, all the warriors circling the city once; you will do so for six days. Then on the seventh day ... the wall fell flat ... Jos 6:3 Jos 6:15-20
	6. The Passover Week (6 days of Unleavened Bread + 1 day of culmination through the Sabbath of Sabbaths)	Six days [Abib 15-20] you shall eat unleavened bread [just as IESOUS -being the Bread of Life- was bound, so only bread without yeast could be eaten during the same time!], and on the seventh day [Abib 21] there shall be an assembly for KYRIOS your THEOS; you shall not do work. Deu 16:8

-7-	The number 7 symbolizes rest, completeness and perfection.
	IESOUS rested on the Sabbath of Sabbaths (Abib 21).	'For six days work is to be done, and on the seventh day shall be a [Weekly] Sabbath of complete rest, a holy assembly; you shall not do any work ... Lev 23:3
		And they returned and prepared fragrant spices and perfumes, and on the [Weekly] Sabbath they rested according to the commandment ... Luk 23:55-56

-8-	The number 8 represents atonement, purification and reconciliation. It also stands for a new beginning, meaning a new order or creation.
	A) This day could be seen according to the biblical '7 + 1 Pattern', which is mainly found in the book of Leviticus, as the day the perfect atonement / cleansing of our sins had been materialized between His death and resurrection (without allowing theories that He went down to hell in order to do so, but rather in a spiritual sense). See also the study 'Numbers' with the requirement for priests to make atonement precisely on the eighth day (Lev 8:33-36 and Lev 14:8-18), the requirement of people with diseases and bodily discharges to make atonement on the eighth day (Lev 14:8-18 and 15:13-15) and the same applying to the Nazirite vow (Num 6:9-11).
	B) Another connection could be made based on the prophecy in Hosea 6:1-3, where the prophet foretells that CHRISTOS will be made alive on the second day and rise only on the third day (similar to Mat 27:51-53 where saints were raised at the time of IESOUS' death, but did not yet come out of their tombs). This re-birth on day eight could be connected to the beginning of a new (ordinary) week on day eight, circumcision on the eighth day (Luk 1:59; Act 7:8; Php 3:4-5) symbolizing (originally in the Old Covenant) the entering into a New Covenant with THEOS (here) through the cross which is closely connected with our spiritual rebirth, and the salvation of 8 people through the ark (1Pet 3:20) and the respective new beginning after the flood.
	It is also remarkable that other feasts such as the Feast of Weeks (Pentecost on the last eighth day) and the Feast of Booths end with an eighth day, while an ordinary Passover does not include an eighth day. But I do not want to fall into the trap of 'spiritualizing' and leave the number 8 up to your own interpretation. Days 6, 7, 9 and 50 have unquestionably an underlying meaning, while day 8 -might- have such.

6+3 Pattern	While the 6+3 pattern is by far not as obvious and frequent as the 6+1 pattern, it still shows a special connection to the events between IESOUS' death (6th day) and His resurrection 3 days later on the 9th day.
	Just as the fields were given a rest in the 7th year and restored in the 8th year, so IESOUS rested on the 7th day and was restored on the 8th day (see also Hos 6: 2-3).	... "What shall we eat in the seventh year, if we do not sow and we do not gather its yield?" then I will command my blessing for you in the sixth year, so that it will make the yield for three years. And you will sow in the eighth year, and you shall eat from the old yield; until the ninth year, until the coming of its yield, you shall eat the old yield [also possible allusion to the old bread without leaven (Passover & Unleavened Bread) and the new bread which was eaten on the 9th day, equal to 9th year of the new yield]. Lev 25:18-22
	Just as people ate from the new harvest / fruits after the springtime of the 9th year, so IESOUS came as the First Fruit on the 9th day.

	6th Day / Year	7th	8th	9th (Beginning)
1. Golgotha	Crucifixion	Rest (Darkness)	Restoration of Tomb	First Fruit (Resurrection)
2. Jubilee Year	Extra Provision	Rest (Dabbled)	Restoration of Field	New Year (Leviticus)

	In the same way the darkness initiated at the 6th hour and lasted until the 9th hour (technically 6:00-8:59), so IESOUS died on the 6th day and left the tomb exactly at the beginning of the 9th day.	Now from (the) sixth hour [noon], there came darkness upon all the land, until (the) ninth hour [3pm]. And close to the ninth hour, IESOUS shouted in a great voice, saying: "Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?" ... Mat 27:45 Mat 27:46
--	--	--

	The timing of the darkness (3 hrs) could have been seen as a practical prophecy for the time IESOUS would remain in the tomb (3 days), in addition to what He prophesied through His own words (Mat 12:40).
--	---	--

	6th Day / Hour	7th	8th	9th (Beginning)
1. Tomb	Crucifixion	Dark Tomb	Dark Tomb	Resurrection
2. Darkness	Fall of Darkness	Dark Sky	Dark Sky	Light over a new

-23-	Abib / Nisan 23rd is the most significant date, being the date of the resurrection of IESOUS CHRISTOS. And this date implies in the biblical context even more significance.
	First Fruits (Abib / Nisan 23)	Speak to the children of Israel, and you shall say to them, When you shall enter into the land which I give you, and reap the harvest of it, then shall you bring a sheaf, the first-fruits of your harvest, to the priest; and he shall lift up the sheaf before KYRIOS, to be accepted for you. On the morrow of the first day the priest shall lift it up. Lev 23:10-13
	First Fruits, Resurrection (Abib / Nisan 23)	But now CHRISTOS has been raised from the dead, the First Fruits of those who have fallen asleep. 1Cor 15:20
	Liberty of the Jews, Book of Esther (Abib / Nisan 23)	So the scribes were called in the first month, which is Nisan, on the thirteenth and fourteenth day of the same year, and orders were written to the Jews, whatever the king had commanded to the local governors and chiefs of the kingdom, according to Ethiopia, a hundred and twenty-seven satraps, from India even to the several provinces, according to their dialects. [...] But we find that the Jews, who have been consigned to destruction by the most abominable of men, are not malefactors, but living according to the justest laws, and being the sons of the living THEOS, the Most High and Mighty, who maintains the Kingdom [...] For in the place of the destruction of the chosen race, Almighty THEOS has granted them this time of gladness. [...] And the Jews had light and gladness, in every city and province wherever the ordinance was published: wherever the proclamation [of the good news] took place, the Jews had joy and gladness, feasting and mirth: and many of the Gentiles were circumcised, and became Jews, for fear of the Jews. Est 8:9 Greek OT
	Return Travel, 2 Travellers to Emmaus (Abib / Nisan 23)	'That very day two of them were going to a village named Emmaus [...] While they were talking and discussing together, IESOUS Himself drew near and went with them. [...] IESOUS OF NAZARETH, a Man who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before THEOS and all the people, and how our chief priests and rulers delivered Him up to be condemned to death, and crucified Him [...] Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things happened. Luk 24:13-34
Return Travel, Feast of Tabernacles (Ethanim 23)	And on the twenty-third day of the seventh month he [Solomon] dismissed the people to their tents, rejoicing, and with a glad heart because of the good deeds which KYRIOS had done to David, and to Solomon, and to Israel His people. 2Chr 7:10

-50-	The number 50 is related to the HOLY SPIRIT, Pentecost, a Jubilee year and to freedom (from work and contracts).
	The Jubilee Year.	... You shall have the fiftieth year as a Jubilee; you must not reap its aftergrowth, and you must not harvest its unpruned vines. Because it is a Jubilee, it shall be holy to you ... Lev 25:8-13
	The Feast of Harvest / Weeks / Pentecost.	... Until the day after the seventh Sabbath you shall count fifty days; then you shall present a new grain offering, for KYRIOS. Lev 23:15-16
	The time between IESOUS' Final Anointing (Abib 13) and His Ascension into Heaven (Sivan 2).	Now IESOUS having been in a house in Bethany, of Simon the leper [Abib 13], a woman approached Him having a very precious alabaster perfume. [...] For her having applied this perfume upon my body, she committed toward my burial. And after He had said these things, while they were watching, He was taken up, and a cloud received Him from their sight [Sivan 2]. Mat 26:6-13 Act 1:9-11
